Registration deadline nears for masonry design annual awards

Michigan architects participating in the 1992 Honor Awards Program for Excellence in Masonry Design must submit registration forms and a $50 fee per exhibit by October 16, 1992,it was announced by Daniel Zechmeister, Executive Director, of the Masonry Institute of Michigan (MIM).

Registration forms will be mailed in August to member firms of the AIA Michigan - A Society of the American Institute of Architects.

The annual event is cosponsored by the MIM and AIA Michigan to honor distinguished accomplishment in architecture by members of the AIA Michigan. Cast bronze 'M Award' plaques will be presented to ATA Michigan architects, owners and MIM member mason contractors of each winning project.

Any building or project completed since May 1, 1989, is eligible for entry. Projects will be judged by three prominent architects from a major city not located in Michigan. The deadline for receipt of submission materials for judging is November 30, 1992.

Winning projects will be announced in March, 1993 at the 18th Annual Masonry Awards Banquet for Excellence in Masonry Design.

To obtain a registration form and rules, of the Masonry Honor Awards Program, contact the Masonry Institute of Michigan at (313) 458-8544.
