baseball rankings

It's getting difficult to pick the top seven baseball teams in the County's Observer & Eccentric weekly ratings. The area sports don't seem to advance in the poll they all keep losing. The top three teams remain the same in the rankings, which don't include Tuesday night's results. Birmingham Brother Rice (12-1), Orchard Lake St. Mary's (12-1) and Southfield-Lathrup (11-4) continue to hold the first three positions. After that it gets more difficult. Southfield High, by virtue of last week's 72-61 upset of No. 3 Lathrup, moves up from its seventh slot into a fourth-place tie with Detroit Country North. Rochester Adams drops one notch to No. 6 in the cage poll after splitting two decisions last week - falling to Mount Clemens in overtime before beating lowly Troy Athens.

Adams stays No. 1 in poll

After two weeks of major shake ups, everything remained relatively steady in the weekly Observer & Eccentric wrestling rankings. Adams and Rochester, for instance, continue to top the seven-team poll as the No. 1 and No. 2 squads in the O&E circulation area. Southfield-Lathrup is third again.

wrestling rankings

Adams, the three-time defending MSAA champion, is sitting all alone atop the league with a perfect 4-0 slate. Adams has only lost one in 18 dual meets this year.

baseball

Boys' basketball coaches in the Birmingham-Bloomfield, Farmington, Rochester, Southfield, Troy and West Bloomfield areas are encouraged to contact Rochester Adams coach Dale Ochs with their top scorers, rebounders and assist men. Orchard can be reached at 631-7400 from 6:30-9:30 p.m. weekdays. The Observer & Eccentric sports sections hope to publish boys' basketball statistics on a weekly basis.
