sponsored by the year-old group Local Bands for Local People and the Detroit Musicians Alliance.

"There's a lot of bands out there that are more than willing to donate their time for whatever various causes they are," said Mike Schultz, Local Bands for Local People founder.

Playing benefits also brings bands closer together, he added.

"Hopefully, with these benefits and the DMA (Detroit Musicians Alliance), together we can get a stronger support base for local bands," he said.

Aside from benefits, The Pretty Green is playing in support of its debut release "Panachocake." The tape showcases such songs and accompanying clever lyrics as "Misery Loves Me," ("I loved myself for the person I adored.") and "You Say It First," ("She spends so much time in my head, she should get her mail there.").

"An alternative band with a pop edge," according to Kaminski, The Pretty Green was formed in the summer of 1992 by guitarist/lead vocalist Dave Goulette and Kaminski, both former members of the Jamersons, Kozera and his brother, drummer Mitch Kozera.

Although all the members share the songwriting duties, Goulette predicted what its future sound will be.

"Now that 'Cheers' is gone, you can expect more dismal songs."

The Pretty Green performs Friday, July 2, at Alvin's, 5756 Cass, Detroit, along with Club Chaos and Hope Orchestra to benefit The Children's Center of Detroit. For more information, call 832-2355. "The Homeboy Show," radio station CIMX 89X's local band show, will feature the three performers at 11 p.m. Sunday, June 27.
