ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE
DETROIT

ComputerServe is a nationwide communications and information services company with 28 sales offices. We have a reputation for effectively providing business information and network services to major corporations, government agencies and individual customers throughout the United States.

We have an immediate opening for an Account Executive in our Detroit branch office. As an Account Executive you will be selling our wide range of information and communication services in the greater metropolitan area of these cities.

Our people are self-starters, creative marketeers, who possess specific industry and application knowledge in the use of computer tools for:

- electronic messaging
- value added data communications
- private videotex applications
- commercial database information
- micro-computer interface applications

We are looking for a degreed individual with successful experience in selling data processing and telecommunications services. This individual should have successfully exceeded sales quotas and have proven ability to close new business.

We offer competitive salaries, excellent incentive plans, and attractive benefits.

If you are looking to step up to a greater challenge with an innovative, high tech company, please forward your resume to:
