Patty Loveless is among the popular country singers and musicians scheduled to perform at the Budweiser Downtown Hoedown.

Country stars come out for Downtown Hoedown

BY LANA MINI
STAFF WRITER

Let's break a stereotype: The Budweiser Downtown Hoedown is not just for staunch country fans.

Yes, a lot of popular names in country music like Patty Loveless and Ricky Skaggs will be at Hart Plaza May 16-18. Fans of harder edge music a la Kid Rock will appreciate some of the bands too.

No, Kid Rock won't actually be there, but check out the Forbes Brothers instead.

The Forbes Brothers are Detroit country. Guitarist Scott Forbes of Farmington Hills describes that category as "rockin' country with an attitude."

Mix hip-hop, blues, Motown and rock with influence of Hank Williams Sr., and Buffalo Springfield – that's the seven-member Forbes Brothers. Currently the band is negotiating a national record deal with an undisclosed company, Forbes said.

This is the 10th Hoedown performance for the band that's been playing since 1990 and has earned 22 Detroit Music Awards.

"In just one night at the Hoedown we get to play for an audience size that essentially would take other bands a year to reach. There's a lot of exposure at this event for all the musicians," Forbes said.

The Hoedown kicks off Hart Plaza's summer festival series and is the largest country festival in the world, with more than 750,000 expected to attend. This year's lineup includes: Brett James, Pinmonkey, Kellie Coffey, Carolyn Dawn, Diamond Rio, Trace Adkins, Jennifer Handson, Ricky Skaggs, Gary Allan, Jimmy Wayne, Amy Dalley, Brian McComas and Jessica Andrews plus many other local and national acts.

The Hoedown is mainly about the music, but there's other attractions too, like mechanical bull rides for kids or adults and an electronic quick-draw match. Bring in three box tops from any Kellogg cereal box and receive a free Tony the Tiger flashlight.

Concession-stand proceeds benefit the children's summer day camps, sports clinics and computer camps plus improvements to Hart Plaza.

And if that's not enough, wander through the audience and do the two-step in one of the many impromptu country line-dances that will break out throughout the weekend. It happens every time.
