STATE OF MICHIGAN
In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland.

In the matter of the petition of Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan, for condemnation of private property for public highway purposes in Farmington Township, Oakland County, Michigan.

At a Session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac in said County on the 23rd day of May, A. D. 1930.

Present: Honorable Dan A. McGaffey, Probate Judge.

It appearing to the Court that Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan, has this day filed in this Court a petition praying for the appointment of three Court Commissioners to appraise the damages to be paid as compensation for the taking of an easement for public highway purposes, in, over, and upon certain private property therein described, and it appearing to the Court that the said Grover C. Dillman, State Highway Commissioner for the State of Michigan, did on the 17th day of April, A. D. 1930, make and file in his office a written determination of the necessity of improving the highway known as Grand River Avenue, road number M063-9 in Farmington Township, Oakland County, Michigan, by constructing the necessary grade, drainage structures and surfacing in accordance with a survey thereof and plans and specifications made under the supervision and direction of said State Highway Commissioner, and the necessity for taking an easement for public highway purposes in, over, and upon the particular private property therein described, and the damages which in his opinion should be paid as compensation for the taking of said easement in, over, and upon each parcel of said property in accordance with the provisions of Act 352, Public Acts 1929, as amended, and that all proceedings thereafter were in accordance with said Act as amended, that the said petitioner has taken or is about to take possession of the property described in said determination of necessity and upon which it is necessary to acquire such easement for said public highway purposes, that the said petitioner has been unable to agree with the persons interested as owners or otherwise in any of the said described property on the damages to be paid as compensation for such taking, that the description of said property and the names of the persons interested therein as owners or otherwise so far as known, who reside in the County of Oakland and those persons mentioned in the attached descriptions as being residents of other counties, or states, are as follows:
