

Restaurant association elects Payne president

Donald Payne, owner of the Family Buggy restaurant in Detroit and the Buggy Works in Farmington Hills, is the new chairman of the board of the Michigan Restaurant Association, replacing 1800 restaurants.

Payne was named to the top post at the association's recent annual meeting. Also named at that meeting were officers for 1981-82. Richard Cregar of CAV Food Services in Warren is the new vice chairman. Jim Constant of Jim's Garage in Detroit is treasurer.

Payne, a resident of Farmington Hills, opened his Family Buggy in Detroit in 1967. His previous experience in the food services industry was with Win Schuler's, the Stouffer Corp. and the Maple House in Troy.

A member of the MRA's board of directors since 1974, Payne has chaired the association's education and educational exposition committees twice. He is a member of the National Restaurant Association and the Michigan State University President's Club.

Payne, his wife and two daughters are antique collectors, and they decorated their restaurants with memorabilia from bygone days. They are also restoring a 113-year-old house in Farmington Hills.

Women's honor society elects Albion junior

Kristine Paul, an Alma College junior from Farmington, has been elected to membership in Gamma Delta Alpha, senior women's honor society. Gamma Delta Alpha, dedicated to encouraging women in furthering their careers, recognizes junior year women who are outstanding in leadership and scholarship.

New members of various honor societies on campus, including Gamma Delta Alpha, were introduced at Alma's 1981 honors convocation on April 8, then were invited to a reception in their honor that evening.

Kristine Paul, a 1978 graduate of Farmington High School, is the daughter of Stephen and Dianne Paul, Hesterton La., Farmington. She is majoring in English at Alma College.
