sion of Harper-Grace Hospitals in Detroit.
This was the second year that Ms. Blumberg received the honor. As a volunteer in the hospital's alcoholism treatment center, she donated 649 hours of her time last year.
She was one of 77 volunteers honored in the Detroit Medical Center for a total of 20,000 hours of time. That's the equivalent of 10 persons working full time.

"THE HANDWRITING on the Wall," a 27-minute film produced by the National Association of Realtors, is now available to service organizations on a loan basis.

The film focuses on vandalism and the resulting damage to property and quality of life. Unintentional vandalism is also stressed.
Contact your local Realtor board for a copy. If they don't have it, contact the Michigan Association of Realtors to schedule the use of the film by your group.

SENIOR CITIZENS, put down your hair and perk up a smile on June 19 when photographers will be at Mercy Center, 28600 11 Mile, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to take pictures for senior identification cards.

Seniors will have their picture taken and laminated into a plastic ID card, which will enable them to take advantage of discounts offered by merchants ranging from 4 to 50 percent.

Everything from auto parts to eyeglasses are discounted. A directory of participating merchants is available and can be purchased for 65 cents at Mercy Center on June 19.

To participate in this program, a person must be 60 years or older and live in Oakland County.
More locations for picture-taking are being sought. Persons who would like to have their business used as a camera location may call Goyt Meger at 858-5171.

HEALTH INFORMATION, sponsored by the Woodland Medical Center, is continuing through May and June with additional programs at the Woodland Novi facility.

Topics covered include: malignant diseases, May 21; back pain, May 27; diseases of the breast, May 28; glaucoma and cataracts, June 1; common pediatric problems, June 4; emphysema/bronchitis complex, June 8; and indigestion and stomach ache, June 15.
