Monument to honor veterans

A monument to honor veterans of seven different U.S. wars who are now buried in the 158-year-old historic Franklin Cemetery will be unveiled and dedicated during traditional ceremonies at 11 a.m. Memorial Day.

The hilltop cemetery is located in Franklin's historic district between Thirteen and Fourteen Mile roads, west of Franklin Road at Seneca.

The memorial is dedicated to the memory of the late Arthur L. Kregger who lived in Franklin 62 years and was a veteran of World War I. Kregger initiated in 1966 and perpetuated the annual Memorial Day services in Franklin. He devoted the latter years of his life to the maintenance and care of the cemetery.

THE MEMORIAL sculpture is in the form of an elm leaf. Designed and executed by artist and sculptress Michell Oka Doner of Franklin, the sculpture was cast in bronze by the Fine Arts Sculpture Center of Garysville.

The Franklin Cemetery Veterans' Memorial is funded by contributions from past and present Franklin residents, village businesses, the Franklin Historical Society and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Franklin Cemetery.

Keego Harbor adult film appeal set

The 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati will hear arguments June 2 on the conversion of the Keego Theater to an adult movie house.

Oral arguments will be limited to 15 minutes per side before the three-judge panel. They will be heard sometime between 8:30 a.m. and noon.

When a decision will be rendered "varies from case to case," according to a court spokeswoman.

The Keego Theater Co. is appealing a federal district court decision which denied its attempt to show X-rated films at the theater, located on Orchard Lake Road in Keego Harbor.

A Jan. 27 decision by U.S. District Court Judge Charles Joiner upheld the city's defense that the small, 300-acre, 3,000-resident city should not be required to allow an adult theater in violation of its zoning ordinance.

The theater company initiated the court suit against Keego Harbor on the basis that the 1978 zoning ordinance is unconstitutional, since it doesn't allow an adult theater anywhere in the city.

Joiner ruled the ordinance is constitutional since there are other adult theaters in the Keego Harbor "market area."

The theater is currently showing general films at a $1 admission price.

A change in theater ownership prompted a move to turn the general film theater into an adult movie house earlier this year.
