GOD GAVE BELL THE ABILITY TO HELP US ALL COMMUNICATE

Your telephone rings and you answer it; or you call someone. You use it every day of your life: in business, in social situations, to call a friend or relative, to inquire about someone's health, to report an emergency, and for a host of other reasons. With all of today's technological refinements and adjuncts to the telephone system, such as answering machines, call waiting, etc., it's hard to remember how the original telephone came into being, and to imagine what life would be like without it. Thank God at your House of Worship for giving that great ability and pioneering spirit to Alexander Graham Bell, whose little-noted birthday occurs on March 3rd. With God's help, he brought us closer together all over the world, through that indispensable communication device, the telephone.

Romans 9 sets forth the PURPOSE of God according to ELECTION. (v. 11). That God should elect and call ANY SINNER to Himself amazes us! This is "Amazing Grace!" Rather than criticize God, as some do, this church seeks to REVERENCE and KNOW MORE of this sovereign and merciful God. We invite you to worship Him with us.
