Band takes stage tonight

The Harrison High bands and orchestra have been all business this school year.

Tonight at 7:30 p.m. the Harrison Symphony Band performs in school auditorium, 12 Mile Road, between Orchard Lake and Middlebelt.

Highlights in recent months include hosting the Michigan School Bands and Orchestra Association Solo Ensemble March 22. The Arianna String Quartet also visited and performed at Harrison April 9.

The school also hosted the Farmington district middle school solo and ensemble festival.

Tuned in: Brass ensemble from Royal Oak Kimball meets with the adjudicator following its performance at state solo ensemble hosted by Harrison High.

Gill filmmakers honored

Gill Elementary students have been awarded first and second division honors by the Detroit Area Film and Television group in its annual Michigan Student Film and Video Festival.

Gill's entry, "A Journey to Save the Earth," received the first division award.

Students who worked under the direction of Lorna Bussa were John Donovan, J.P. Duprey, Emily Moses, Michael Schmidt, Lee DeVito, Robb Lane, Maggie Vaillencourt, Rebekah Howe, Brian Krasuski and James Osment.

Gill's second division honor was for the entry, "KAGAR: Our Respect Bug."

Students who put the entry together were Amina Ahmed, Meera Arghal, Andrew Doloney, Michael Gariepy, Jennifer McGuire, Erin Milus, Alex Romine, Kathryn Schalek, Pavel Shotkin and Bettie Wade.

Both entries will be on dispaly at the Michigan Student Film & Video Festival 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 3, at the Detroit Institute of Arts Museum. Admission is free.

The festival will feature grades 9-12 from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and junior and elementary divisions 2-4 p.m.
