College day at Madonna

How students can earn up to $500 off their tuition by attending a Michigan independent college is just one of the many topics to be explored during "College Information Day" on June 28 at Madonna College in Livonia.
The Sunday affair is scheduled be-tween 2 p.m. and 4 p.m., in the Activi-ty Center on campus which is located on Schoolcraft (I-96) and Levan.
High school students, parents, com-munity members and older adults are welcome to attend to meet faculty, in-teract with counselors, tour the cam-pus, and learn more about the Michigan Differential Grant.
Undergraduates qualify for the grant based on full or part time enrollment at an independent college, regardless of financial need. Full time students are awarded $500, while part time stu-dents receive $250.

Students at Madonna College may earn baccalaureate degrees in over 50 career-oriented fields of study, includ-ing: business administration, computer science, journalism, music, nursing, po-litical science, sign language studies, and occupational safety and health/fire science.
For the 1981-82 academic year, which begins Sept. 8, tuition at Madona College will run $38 per semester hour for regular degree programs.
For more information contact the admissions office at 591-5952.
