Scarbrough, who had no previous victories this year, won the 800 and 1,600 races and also anchored the winning 1,600 relay team.

"We really needed him to come up, and he had two personal bests," Schumacher said. "He won the 1,600 by a foot and the 800 by two feet.

"The mile relay came down to him. When he got the baton, we were 10 yards behind, but he made up the difference and we won by a foot there.

"In terms of wins and losses, he saved our bacon. He was certainly the star of our team tonight."

Nick Hall was another double individual winner for Harrison in the hurdles.

The Hawks had other wins from Dario Otero and Steve Migliore, who tied for first place in the shot put; Brad Person in the discus, Derek Laskowski in the pole vault, Kevin Woods in the 200 dash and Andre Davis in the 400.

"We had some very good performances overall," Schumacher said. "Our team got prepared and fired up for the meet.

"It was fun because we put our strong points against theirs and our weak spots against theirs. So we had some good contests all the way around."
