

INSIDE ANGLES

CHARLIE'S PLACE is throwing a party and you're invited. Charlie's Place, on Farmington Road south of Grand River, is having a free buffet for the community on Monday, July 13, beginning at 11 a.m. It's Charlie Spaller's way of saying thanks to everyone for their enthusiastic response to his opening last February.

Spaller has worked in the area for 13 years as chef, bartender, host and manager. The secret ingredient for success at his new eatery is his mother; she's the cook in the kitchen. The restaurant has a seating capacity of 150 and features homestyle soups and sandwiches.

LICENSE PLATE browsers may have spotted this one tooling around town on the back of a car — it reads simply "June 20." The woman behind the wheel is a new bride, Mrs. Jill Jordan.

Mrs. Jordan's husband, Bill, gave his bride the personalized plate as a wedding gift so that she would never forget their anniversary. The couple was married June 20 at Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Farmington.

IT WAS A packed crowd at the Fairlane Club in Dearborn last Saturday who saw 29 interns and 9 residents from Botsford General Hospital in Farmington Hills receive their graduation certificates. Additionally four staff physicians received awards for 45 years service: Dr. Donald Borzman, William Rices, Howard Sobel and Ralph Younk.

Graduating interns were: Drs. James Arons, Claudio Bechara, Randall Brodsky, Andrew Colman, W. Craig Crafton, Lisa Dabanian, Ronald D'Agostino, Arlie Getz, Judie Goodman, Mark Grosinger, Mark Halonen, Anthony Johnson, Ronald Klenitz, Stephen Kirtner, Bradley Klein, Allan Kurtz, Linda Lafferty, L. Bing Lien, George Mitchell, Ross Morell, Kevin O'Connell, Eric Phillips, Nancy Rancour, Joyce Richards, Allen Schwartz, Mark Skory, Martin Solomon, V.O. Speights, Jr., and Susan Williams.

Residents who completed their specialty training included: Drs. Robert Boorstein and Edward Wiener (surgery), Edward Newman (obstetrics and gynecology), Mark Nubolts, Linda Benaender, Robert Grant and Robert Sherman (internal medicine), G. Barry Robbins, Jr. (neurology) and Bruce Sand (gastroenterology).

STOCKING UP on summer reading materials? Don't forget the new library hours. Both Farmington Hills branch at 32737 W. 12 Mile and Farmington branch at 23500 Liberty will be open Monday to Thursday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and closed on weekends.

In other library news, the community library board of trustees elected new officers recently. They are Ernest Sauter, president; James Ebel, vice president; Lois Carey, secretary; and James Wilby, treasurer.

NO COMPRENDO English? Registration has begun for an English as a second language course to be held Aug. 10-14 and Aug. 17-21 at Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge campus. Students will complete 42 hours of language study which will stress rereading of collegiate-level texts, essay and paragraph writing, formal and informal speech, effective listening and note-taking. The seminar is geared to applicants who have intermediate language proficiency but who have not scored 550 on the Test of English as a Foreign Language, or 80 on the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency. The class is limited to 20 students. For information, call George Keith at 476-9400.

HANDICAPPED PERSONS can enjoy swimming in ocean-like waves at the Waterford Oaks Action pool Tuesday, July 14. The program is open to persons 10 years or older. Wheelchairs can be accommodated in the pool, which ranges from zero to 8 feet in depth. Calm periods alternate with the waves for regular swimming. Bus transportation will be provided at 5 p.m. with pick up sites at Southfield Parks and Recreation on Evergreen in Southfield and Troy Parks and Recreation on West Big Beaver in Troy. The cost is $2, which includes transportation, entrance to the pool and a locker, or $1 pool entrance fee for those not travelling with the group.

The pool is on Scott Lake road in Pontiac. For more information, call 858-1441.

SUCCESSFUL WOMAN MANAGER is a two-day seminar offered by the University of Detroit division of continuing education July 30 and 31 at Northland Stouffers Inn in Southfield.
