Lorene Erickson elected chairman

Lorene F. Erickson has been elected president of the Clarenceville Board of Education by fellow board members for the 1981-82 school year.

Mrs. Erickson, a three-year member of the board, succeeds Richard Wood. A former Livonia School District instructor, she was secretary of the board for two years. Currently, she is a freelance writing consultant, conducting in-service training for teachers of writing for area school districts.

Re-elected vice president was insurance adjuster Daniel Morrison. Barry Sherman, a Livonia policeman, was re-elected treasurer. Sherman, who graduated from the Clarenceville system, is in his first term as a trustee.

The new secretary of the school board is Michael Manore, a planning consultant with the Canton Township firm of Wade, Trim and Associates, who is serving his first term on the board.

The Clarenceville district includes portions of Livonia, Redford Township and Farmington Hills. All board members live in Livonia.

The board meets at 7:30 p.m. on alternate Thursdays each month, with the exception of November and December, in Clarenceville Junior High Lorene Erickson School, 20210 Middlebelt Road. The next meeting is Aug. 20.
