Facts About the Telephone

Since the management of the telephone service was turned over by the Italian Government to private enterprise in 1925 the number of subscribers in Italy has more than doubled.

Eleven states each have more than 10,000 A. T. & T. stockholders and 13 states have more than 5,000 stockholders. There are stockholders in every state of the Union and in the District of Columbia.

An extensive long distance telephone system, covering the entire rice-producing district of Central Luzon, has recently been constructed by the Philippine Long Distance Telephone Company.
