

Blackburn-Leidlein

Martha Catherine Leidlein and Rucy Lynn Blackburn were married on Aug. 1 by Father Ed Betzak in Our Lady of Sorrow Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leidlein of Farmington, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blackburn of Anadarko, Okla.

The bride was clad in a full-length gown of ivory satin and point de spre with chapel-length veil that fell from her picture hat. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Ann Leidlein served as her sister's maid of honor with bridesmaids Florence Conway, Maria Rodriguez, Meg Balfary, Annette Plant, Jan Leidlein. Jeanine Leidlein served as a junior bridesmaid and Sara Conley as flower girl. Each of the bride's attendants wore a gown of a different color of the rainbow and all carried ivory fans.

Mike Blackburn served as his brother's best man with attendants Donnie Blackburn, John McCathern, Eric Leidlein, Greg Rogers and Hugh Leidlein, and Eric Leidlein as ring bearer.

The bride, a student at Oakland Community College, will begin studies at Oklahoma University this fall pursuing a degree in early-childhood development. The groom is currently working on his doctorate degree in adult and community education. The couple received guests at a lawn party in the home of the bride's parents before leaving on a wedding trip to the Pocomo Mountains in Canada. They will make their home in Norman, Okla.

Howard-Hanlon

Donald C. Howard of Farmington Hills announces the engagement of his daughter, Janice Marion, to Patrick Hanlon, son of Mrs. Esther Hanlon of Harbor Beach.

The bride-to-be graduated from Central Michigan University with a degree in broadcast journalism and is employed as news director for WRCI Radio in Midland.

Her fiancé, a Central Michigan University graduate with a degree in broadcast communications, is employed as a broadcast engineer with WCMU-TV, Channel 14 in Mt. Pleasant.

An early September wedding is planned at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington.

Murphy-Klingbeil

Martha Warner Klingbeil became the bride of Peter Francis Murphy during a May 30 ceremony that took place at the First United Methodist Church in Farmington. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Hayward Klingbeil of Grosse Pointe Shores and Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Murphy of Grosse Pointe Farms.

The former Miss Klingbeil is a graduate of Smith College and is employed as a group representative by the Prudential Insurance Company. Her husband is a graduate of Harvard University and is the vice president of the Paul Murphy Plastics Company of Roseville.

Following the wedding there was a reception at the Governor Fred M. Warner family home, which was occupied until last fall by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Edessa Warner Slocum.

The home was recently given by the bride's family to the city of Farmington for use as a cultural and historical center.

Koss-Randall

Barbara Randall became the bride of Gerald Norbert Koss during a June 27 ceremony that took place at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce F. Randall of Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Koss of Farmington Hills.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the Troy Hilton Inn after which the couple left for a trip to French Light, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Koss are now living in Southfield.

Patterson-Uphoff

Mr. and Mrs. William Patterson of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Louise Anne, to Thomas G. Uphoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Uphoff of Birmingham.

The bride-to-be and her fiancé are both graduates of Michigan State University. She is a Montessori teacher in Colorado Springs, Colo., and he is assistant manager for Woodmore Country Club in Colorado Springs.

A September wedding is planned in Orchard United Methodist Church.
