Junior Women's Club welcomes new members

The Farmington Hills Junior Women's Club welcomes Farmington-area women to its annual membership coffee hour held on Wednesday, Sept. 16 at 8 p.m. in the home of Sandra Donlon, 29963 Mayfair. All interested women in the Farmington/Farmington Hills area are invited to learn about the club's community involvement.

The Junior Women's Club is a service organization involved in diverse programs and projects at both the local and state level. It is affiliated with General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs.

This affiliation makes it possible for the club to combine efforts with national and international clubs to accomplish carefully selected projects. The club has formed several departments in the arts, conservation, education, home life, international affairs and public affairs. Each department committee evaluates the needs of the community and may decide either to support existing local projects or implement new projects.

The Farmington Hills club currently is supporting the Bucket Brigade, a one-to-one tutoring program in the public schools; New Horizons, an organization providing training in sheltered workshops for mentally and physically handicapped adults in Oakland County; Sarah Fisher Children's Home, Meals on Wheels, Goodfellow's, the Community Library, and Girlstown, a home for teenage girls in Belleville. The group also sponsors shopping-prevention programs in area schools in cooperation with the local police departments and the county sheriff's department.

Besides community service, the club provides, at its monthly meetings, speakers from varied professions. Speakers have discussed such subjects as women's rights in obtaining credit, better TV viewing and alternatives to TV for our children, early detection of breast cancer, and citizens' efforts to prevent shoplifting.

from 5-7 p.m. will open the Birmingham Bloomfield Art Association (BBA) Juried Invitational Exhibit, 1518 S. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham. No charge. Exhibit through Oct. 10.

COMMISSION ON AGING
Tuesday, Sept. 22: Farmington Area Commission on Aging regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Farmington City Hall, Liberty Street and Grand River. Open to all interested persons.

The club has had workshops to make Christmas gifts and centerpieces for 300 handicapped adults of New Horizons, has met several exchange students from Europe and Brazil at an international coffee, and has gone to Channel 7's "Kelly and Co." More programs are scheduled this year to increase personal awareness and broaden members' interests and talents.

Meetings are held in members' homes on the fourth Wednesday of the month, September through May, conducted by Sheila Wade, club president. Inquiries of membership may be made to Sandra Donlon, membership chairman, 661-1684.
