CROSSING THE EQUATOR

Whenever a vessel of the United States Navy crosses the equator, those members of the crew called the 'shellbacks," who have previously been over the line, initiate the others called "Pollywogs" into the mysteries of the deep. These initiations are often elaborate affairs. Impressive looking certificates are presented to those initiated by King Neptune and his retinue.

THERE'S Only One--

Just as there's only ONE girl you really can go for—there's only ONE coal like BLUE BEACON. And for a like reason—cause Mother Nature just didn't make any more. BLUE BEACON is the cream of fine furnace coals—a pleasure to use—clean, hot, economical. 8 tons of BLUE BEACON go as far as 10 of ordinary coal. Phone us today for real home comfort.

WEST FARMINGTON

Several children from here who are in the fifth and sixth grade at the Walled Lake School motored to Ann Arbor to the University of Michigan and sang on Professor Joseph Maddy's radio music class program over station WJR Tuesday at 9 o'clock. Miss Kathryn Rupert and Miss Jean Wallace directed the singing.

The Walled Lake Senior class will give a play Friday evening, March 13 "Girl Shy" at Walled Lake school.

Mrs. Harry Colstalk entertained several ladies at a sewing circle at her home Tuesday afternoon.

A tree pruning demonstration was held at the Ray Marsh orchard Thursday afternoon. The demonstration was held by Don Hootman of Michigan State College. Pruning bearing apple trees was held Friday at Gage Halsted's and L. R. Love's orchards. The boys of the horticultural class of the Walled Lake school attended the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtz entertained several relatives at a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Kurtz birthday anniversary.

George Hellker, Raymond Seeley Roland Green, Charles Cox, William Knapp, Lloyd Graham, Raymond See, John Mitchel and Millard Mitchel attended the election of officers meeting of the Future Farmers of America at Walled Lake school Tuesday evening.

HONORABLE DISCHARGE

An honorable discharge from the United States Navy is a testimonial of fidelity and obedience. It is a certificate of service and character and is always of value to the holder in future years. It is a remarkable reference in obtaining employment.
