

Each week the Farmington Hills Parks and Recreation Department will present a synopsis of activities in this column. For further information regarding our programs, please contact us at 474-6115.

• MOONLIGHT SKI TOUR — Cross country ski Glen Oaks Golf Center will be open Friday, Jan. 8, from 7-10 p.m. Ski rentals and snack bar will be available. This activity is held in cooperation with the Oakland County Parks & Recreation Commission.

• FARMINGTON HILLS YOUTH ORCHESTRA & BAND — The Farmington Hills Parks & Recreation Department is offering another session of the youth concert band and string orchestra at the Shawwassee Recreation Center. This activity, under the direction of Fern Barber, will offer music students in the sixth-through-eighth grades an opportunity to play in an ensemble and acquaint them with the best musical literature available. The winter session will begin Wednesday, Jan. 13, and continue to April 7. The class will meet from 4-5 p.m. The fee is $16; music is provided. All students should be concurrently participating in an instructional lesson program.

Recreation News

• SAFETY CLINICS — The Farmington Hills Parks & Recreation Department is offering CPR and first aid at the Shawwassee Recreation Center. CPR classes will begin Thursday, Jan. 14, and continue Monday, Jan. 18, and Thursday, Jan. 21. Class will be held from 7-10 p.m. The $4 fee includes cost of instructional book and handouts. This activity is held in conjunction with the Farmington Jaycees. First-aid classes will be held Wednesday, beginning Jan. 20, and continue through March 10. Class time also will be from 7-10 p.m. The $4 fee includes cost of instructional book and handouts. This activity is held in conjunction with the American Red Cross. Please preregister for these activities.

• ENERGY WORKSHOP — Monday, Jan. 11 at 11 a.m., Jack Kraehling of the Oakland Livingstone Human Service Agency will present the first of three workshops. He will furnish no-cost/low-cost ideas to help people save energy. Free premiums from local merchants will be given out after each workshop. The workshop will be at the Farmington Jaycees. First-aid senior adult center hosted by the Farmington Hills Parks & Recreation Department and located at the Mercy Conference Center.

Man arraigned for his pot crop

A West Bloomfield man was arraigned on drug charges last week after police raided his home and discovered suspected marijuana plants growing in his greenhouse.

Michel James Braunlich, 27, awaits a Thursday examination in 48th District Court for violation of the controlled substance act and possession of a dangerous weapon (metallic knuckles).

West Bloomfield police executed a search warrant at Braunlich's Fieldbrook home about 7 p.m. Wednesday.

In the house they reportedly found 24 containers believed to be holding marijuana plants, a container of finely ground marijuana and a hash-oil distillation device in which ground marijuana can be cooked.

Brass knuckles, illegal fireworks and what appeared to be dried marijuana leaves also were confiscated, Police Sgt. Bob Scott said.

Braunlich pled not guilty to both charges and was released on $10,000 personal bond.
