The 1971 Volkswagen costs a low $1795.86*

Volkswagen is still the best car buy, despite the new import surcharge.

Cars that were imported before August 15 are not subject to the new surcharge. But Volkswagen will pass on to its customers any excise tax rebate it repeal is passed by Congress.

On a basic POE* price of $1899, Volkswagen will refund $103.14, if the excise tax rebate is passed.

That means the VW you buy now would cost you only $1795.86*.

Visit us today for a real bargain!

For additional savings consider a 1971 Demonstrator.

Authorized Dealer

*Basic POE suggested price for VW Model 1111, the popular Beetle sedan. Includes import surcharge and federal excise tax. Local shipping charges, state and local taxes and dealer preparation charges not included.
