FARMINGTON

Floral Park Subdivision had a 25th anniversary luncheon in the Danish Inn Feb. 23. Past and present neighbors north of Shiawassee attended.

Several of the 21 neighbors had moved to different states but have since returned to live in Farmington and the surrounding areas. Mrs. Dorothy Trueman and Mrs. Merrison Estep were hostesses for the get-together.

Pictures were shown of children and grandchildren, and of happy times from the past. Many memories were recalled as everyone exchanged addresses and phone numbers. Another wonderful day is now a memory for all.

Dr. and Mrs. Eliezer Monge, of Farmington, attended a seminar for doctors in Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gelaneck, of Kendallwood Drive, spent two weeks in Acapulco, Mexico, in the Matador Hotel.

Eugene Chesar, of Kendallwood, is also having a grand time with his friends this past month in Acapulco.

Mel Kennedy, of Farmington, is currently in St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. He is an active member of the Farmington Drop-in Center and an avid pinochle player in the club.

Mrs. Floyd Sallow is in Botsford Hospital. "Get Well" wishes go to Jean. She is in room 156A.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carmody, Normandy Hills, Farmington, spent two weeks vacation in the Virgin Islands. Their family remained at home.

Sally Whitehead underwent surgery in Providence Hospital. We wish Sally a speedy convalescence.

Doris Johnson, of Farmington, is in St. Mary Hospital for tests and treatment. She is an avid worker in the Senior Citizens Social Club.

Eighteen family members representing four generations gathered at the Farmington home of Mrs. John (Katherine) Martin Feb. 19 in honor of her 80th birthday.

The guests ranged in age from 80 to two and a half years. Champagne cocktails and a buffet dinner were followed by unwrapping of gifts and blowing out the candles on a birthday cake decorated in a spring motif: white frosting topped with yellow daffodils and white daisies. The cake was done by the hostess' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Betty Kraft Martin.
