

At the Center

Sign-ups are still going on for spring classes in the Farmington Community Center to accommodate those who have been out of town for Easter vacations.

Mrs. Alberta Taylor, executive director, draws attention to the fact that most favorites among the fall classes are once again available.

RICKY DOVE, "Symmetries" instructor, has changed his class day from Friday to Wednesday, 1:15 to 2:45 p.m. The course combines exercise with glamor and is described as "a fun way to tone the muscles from head to toe with music."

Dove promises no extreme forms of exercise or sudden, violent exertion, only movements within the individual's capability.

A great favorite on the women's club circuit, Dove holds classes in Women's City Club of Detroit, the Boat Club, Country Club of Detroit, Village Club and Country Club of Bloomfield Hills, Women's Club of Ann Arbor, and others.

Mrs. Sue Von Rosen's classes in decoupage will be held Wednesday afternoons for beginners and mornings for intermediates.

Beginners will learn basic techniques and will make a basket purse, box, or wall plaque. Intermediates will learn the art of gesso, working under glass, and paper collage. They will create stunning lamps, gesso boxes, candy jars, plates, and vases.

CREWEL EMBROIDERY, a tremendous favorite last fall, will add a second session, meeting Thursday afternoons in addition to mornings. Students create art needlework of museum caliber under the instruction of Mrs. Dorothy Calmes.

Art for children and teens will continue with instructors Miss Grace Campbell and William Harmon of Farmington schools and Larry Oughten from Cranbrook Academy of Art.

Ballet for all age groups will be provided by Mrs. Agnes Prentice and Mrs. Harriet Vickery.

Creative dramatics continue under the direction of Mrs. Cecil Orman. Her course consists of story telling, choral reading, poetry interpretation, pantomime, improvisation, and a presentation for parents.

Thanks to you who have called me with news there will be a column this week. I want to express my great appreciation for the calls.

FRED AND Zella Missal are back from another of their jaunts. They flew to Florida March 6, left the next day from Port Everglades on the Hamburg for another Caribbean cruise revisiting many of the stops of their previous trip: St. Thomas, Grenada, Caracas, but adding Curacao, Venezuela, then on to Jamaica and Haiti.

They were in a group of four couples with a total of 570 passengers aboard. Be sure a wonderful time was had by all.

Honor Schultz
FARMINGTON Richard Schultz of 32518 Nestlewood Farmington, has been accorded special recognition as outstanding student representative of the Miami University of Ohio speakers' bureau.

The recognition is given jointly by the university's speech department and its alumni association.

LAST WEEK, March 20, Sherry Lynne Smolek Schiller, daughter of Bill and Vi Smolek, was honored by the University of Michigan for maintaining an "A" average for more than two semesters.

Area Student Arts Chairman
John Scherbarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Scherbarth of 22280 Longacre, Farmington, is creative arts chairman for the University of Michigan Activities Center.

North Stages I-Act Plays
FARMINGTON Stage 8 Repertoire Company is holding twice weekly performances of one-act plays at North Farmington High School. Curtain time is 2:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays in Room E8.

According to Miss Carol Kadushin, faculty advisor, purpose of the plays is "to allow students to have an opportunity to experience all aspects of theater from acting and directing to stage crew and publicity."

Ionesco's "The Lesson" was the performance slated for March 23, under direction of Steve Posen.

John De Witt directed the March 25 showing of "The Zoo Story" by Edward Albee.

Students pay an admission charge of 10 cents.

This, of course, put her on the dean's list. But for her achievements she was also named an Angell scholar at a recent honors convocation. Congratulations, Sherry.

Bill and Vi, of course, went to this event. You must have heard on radio or seen on TV the Black Power demonstration—the demonstrators interrupting the speaker. It was a very terrifying experience.

ERIC AND Paul Rogind, two sons of Hans and Geneva Rogind, are having an interesting experience.

The Roginds are badminton buffs and belong to the Birmingham Badminton Club at Cranbrook. Their sons were chosen to go to Manhattan Beach, N.Y., to play in the Junior National Badminton Championship games to be held there. They left March 20 and drove out. On Tuesday they toured Disneyland. The tournament ran from the 20th thru the 28th.

Eric played in the 15 and under group and Paul in the 13 and under. Outcome of the 13

Area Student Arts Chairman
John Scherbarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Scherbarth of 22280 Longacre, Farmington, is creative arts chairman for the University of Michigan Activities Center.

The sophomore, majoring in economics and political science, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.
