Teacher, Mother Of Principal Died Recently

Two deaths shocked faculty members and students this week end, one a teacher in the Farmington Township Schools and the other the mother of Mr. G. H. Harrison, principal of the High School.

Mrs. Tarmo Maattala, teacher at the Ten Mile Elementary School, after entering the hospital Thursday, died suddenly Saturday morning following an exploratory operation.

Mrs. Sarah M. Harrison of Ferndale died Friday.

The Blue and White staff joins the rest of the faculty and the student body in expressing our sincere sympathy.

Home Ec. Class Studies Child Care In Classroom

Miss Ruth Kirchner's Home Economics I class was studying a short unit on child care and the girl brought their small brothers and sisters to school on Thursday, May 5.

The girls provided entertainment for the children and made observation reports on the children's behavior, eating habits, and dress.

Five Farmington Boys Selected To Attend Wolverine Boys' State

The Farmington area will again send representatives to Wolverine Boys' State.

This year five delegates and five alternates have been elected.

The delegates are: Don Nichols, Russ Desmelik, Dave Cargill, Nick Spicer, and Peter Quisenberry.

They will be at Michigan State College from June 18 through June 25. There, with other outstanding students of the state, they will participate in a program that is designed to acquaint them with democratic processes.

Cargill, who is a member of the Student Council and participates in baseball and basketball, is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Desmelik, a member of the golf team and actor in the Junior play, will be sponsored by the Exchange Club. He will be editor-in-chief of next year's yearbook.

Nichols, captain of next year's basketball team, holder of the school's high jump record, and a member of the choir for the last three years, is to be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Spicer, who was a participant in the Junior play, takes part in track, and has been class treasurer for two years, is going as the Farmington Township delegate.

Quisenberry, who has been active in intramural sports, plays J. V. baseball, and will be business editor of next year's Rollcall, will be sponsored by the City of Farmington.

The alternates are Bill Lafacere, Jerry Flick, William Fulton, George Mullin, and Rodney Layton.

These students were selected for their citizenship, leadership, dependability, sportsmanship, and good character.

The faculty and Juniors voted for the boys that they felt met these standards. The voting was held early in March. R. G.

FINAL INTER-LAKES STUDENT COUNCIL MEET HELD HERE

The final Inter-Lakes Student Council meeting was held Wednesday, May 4, in the Farmington High library.

The schools attending were as follows: Berkley, Southfield, Waterford, Walled Lake, and Farmington.

The main topic of discussion was brought up by Farmington students. They asked the opinion of the students from other schools on having evaluation sheets for the accomplishments of the Student Council.

The evaluation sheets will be made with spaces given for approval, disapproval, and suggestions.

Refreshments, which consisted of banana splits, were given to students by the Farmington High representatives. J. R.

Alumni News

Gertrude (White) and John Gazley, both from the class of '53, just returned from Florida. While enroute they visited Virginia (Hallock), Class of '54, and Elmer Sanders, a former student of Farmington High, at Fort Bragg. Also, they visited Ruth Gazley, class of '49, in Jacksonville, Florida. The Sanders have a baby boy.

Ann Clappison, class of '53, is engaged to Marvin Schultz from Center Line. They plan to be married in September.

Al McFarland, class of '51, is home for 43 days on leave from the Army. He has been stationed in Japan.

Bruce Treweek, class of '50, has finished his basic training and is home on leave from the Army.

Ray Wojtyna, class of '54, was home from Ferris Institute last week. Also he was on the honor roll at the Institute. J. M.

Speech Students Present Plays

The fourth hour speech students presented three plays to the Junior High students Thursday, May 5, in the gym.

The plays given and those who participated in them are listed below:

"If Men Played Cards as Women Do," with Doug Byron, Roger Clark, Art Hamlin and Jay Phelps portraying the characters.

"Rehearsal" was given by Barbara Stover, Lois Claypool, George Natho, Jay Mason, Frank Sundry, and Chuck Urquhart.

"Cupid On The Loose" was given by Dick Grimshaw, Gordon Harshfield, Roberta Spaller, Bob Byrne and Sally Vykydal.

Gordon Harshfield, Bob Byrne and Marilyn Gregor were in charge of staging for the presentation of the plays.

According to Mr. Ray Sherpill, director, the plays were enthusiastically received. J. C.

Seniors Prepare For Graduation Ball

All of the hard work of the various Graduation Ball committees will be climaxed Saturday, May 14, at the Senior Class Shangri-la.

The decorations for the Graduation Ball will be put up tomorrow as there is no school because of teachers' meetings in Ann Arbor.

The oriental theme will be carried out through all of the decorations and programs.

Tickets have been on sale since Tuesday, May 3, and will be sold at the door. M. E. B.

Annual Spring Concert Planned For May 26

The Farmington High Band and Vocal Department is preparing for their annual spring concert, May 26.

The "Showboat" is now in its early stages. The decoration committee has started painting the sets and the advertising committee is making posters and signs. The tickets are also in the process of being printed.

The date on which tickets will go on sale will be announced in a later issue of the Blue and White. R. D.

COLLEGE COSTS UP

The cost of a college education is going up. Students and their parents had better steel themselves for the shock. By next fall, tuition costs will be raised from the present fee of $800 to $1,000 in a few schools, and other schools are likely to increase their charges proportionately. Tax-supported colleges will also increase their tuition fees, primarily for out-of-state students.

FIVE MAJORETTES ADDED TO BAND GROUP AT F.H.S.

Five majorettes were chosen last Tuesday, May 3. They are as follows: Linda Kelly, captain, Sally Henry, Karen Reinke, Betty McNatt and Carole Read.

These five girls have been attending a twirling class every Tuesday evening. Since there were no other girls who attended the tryouts, Mr. Robert Zimmerman watched the girls twirl and march. He gave them about a half an hour of coaching instruction on their marching.

The girls will make their uniforms and will march with Jane Grinager and Carol Morton in front of the band on Memorial Day. C. L. M.
