Mr. and Mrs. Orthur Muir, who recently moved to their new residence on Shadyside Avenue, were tendered a housewarming party Saturday evening, January 21. About eight couples, most of whom were members of the Square Dance Club with which the Muirs are connected, were present. The affair was well-arranged and turned out to be a complete surprise to the honored pair. Much of the time was spent in gay conversation and inspection of the home. An appetizing supper, brought in for the occasion, was enjoyed by all. A beautiful bedspread was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Muir.

SOUTHFIELD CHURCH PLANS WEEK-LONG MISSION MEETING

Missionaries from many parts of the world will have up-to-the-minute reports of conditions in other lands, some of them illustrated by color film and slides, at the 8th Annual World Vision Conference of the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian Street, according to the Pastor, Rev. Raymond Bayne.

The conference will open with services on Sunday, February 12, at 10 a.m., 11:15 a.m., 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 except Saturday.

Speakers on Sunday will include Mr. Hudson Shedd of Bolivia and Miss Olive Fynney of Malaya in the morning, and Robert Shelton, of Okinawa in the evening. Charles Mellis, speaking at a special youth meeting at 6:30 p.m., will present a first-hand report of the recent tragedy in Ecuador where one of his pilots and four other missionaries were killed by savages.

Monday night a men's meeting will be held, featuring Dr. J. Elwin Wright. Dr. Eric Frykenberg of India will speak Tuesday night with a special report on Bombay, scene of present riots and political upheaval. A special ladies' meeting on Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. will hear Rev. Harold Van Broekhoven of Guatemala, who will tell of the establishment of Latin American missionary radio stations.

On Wednesday evening, Mr. William Standridge will make a report on work in Italy, including pictures of Rome. Work among the Comanche Indians of Oklahoma will be presented Thursday evening by Mr. Elliott Canonge, who will also tell of the problems of translation. Boys and girls will be specially treated on Friday night with a program by Virgil Newbrander, headmaster of a children's school in Tokyo. On the closing Sunday, February 19, Robert Bowman of Sacred Recordings fame and formerly of the "Haven of Rest" broadcast, will report on work in the Philippines. Robert Lytle will represent work in Brazil. In the evening, Arthur Johnston will speak of work in Paris and Peter Deyneka, famous "twice-born Russian" will tell of work among Slavic peoples throughout the world.

23 Boys Sign Up In Eagle School Boy Scout Troop

A total of 23 boys applied for membership in the newly organized Eagle School Boy Scout Troop at a meeting held at the school on Monday, January 23.

A well-rounded program was held for the parents. The aims of Scouting at all levels were explained and illustrated by slides shown by Mr. Wells of the Scout Executive Council. The group was addressed by Mr. Wells, Mr. Everill and Hartley Thornton. The Troop Committee was introduced as the people who would be responsible for the boys.

The Troop is now officially identified as Troop 116 and the area patch will say "Eagle Troop." All boys attending Eagle School are eligible for membership.

Each Scout will be encouraged to earn his own dues money and to pay for his own uniform. Parents are urged to enter into the Scouting program with the boys. Parents will provide transportation and assist at camp-outs, hikes and cook-outs. Jack Steyskal has been elected official bugler for the troop.

Much enthusiasm was displayed when Mr. Wells took the group on a "Lion Hunt," which ended with the parents and boys all laughing and in a good humor.

Dale Winnie, Scoutmaster, closed the meeting. He reminded all that Scout meetings will be held each Monday at 7:30 p.m. Event meeting to be held on the first Monday of each month.
