Delivery Set For Telephone Directories

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company will begin delivery of its local 1965 telephone directories in the metropolitan area next week.

The new "tandem-bound" West-and-Downriver area directories now include not only the white pages for this locality, but also the Yellow Pages under the same multi-color blue and yellow covers.

It will take two weeks or more for some 450 distributors to deliver 243,000 copies of the phone book to subscribers in 42 Wayne County communities.

SHOWN THIS YEAR for the first time are full-page maps of the local calling areas for each exchange included in the West-and-Downriver area directory. These maps can be found among the information pages at the front of the book.

The West-and-Downriver area directory is one of three suburba n directories distributed by Michigan Bell. The other two area directories are the North directory which includes Oakland County, and the East directory which covers southern Macomb County.

Telephone customers who need one or both of the other two area white pages directories may obtain them by calling the local Michigan Bell business office.

Besides the three suburban books, 1,404,000 Detroit directories also are being distributed at this time to Detroit subscribers and to those suburbanites who request them.

Mechanics at Bill Root Chev. Earn Awards

Five mechanics from Bill Root Chevrolet received Honors last week from Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corp. for outstanding proficiency in their profession.

Clyde Vance received the Gold Award for 28 years service as a Chevrolet Service Technician.

Vance along with Paul Shaposka, Henry Fritzman, and Arthur Nelson received Chevrolet Master Technician Awards. "Red" Monroe received a Chevrolet Certified Mechanical Technicians Award.

THE AWARDS were presented at a special Awards Banquet held at the Rawlegh House in Detroit.

Service manager Herb Tucker of Bill Root Chevrolet assisted in the presentation of the Awards.

Vocations Nite To Be April 7 At Walled Lake

The fourth annual Vocations Night will be held next Wednesday, April 7, at Walled Lake High School, 2978 South Commerce Road. Farmington residents will have an opportunity to join other school districts to explore in depth the job outlook for high school graduates. The program is set for 7 to 9 p.m.

Representatives from industry, the armed services and business, technical and trade schools will be on hand to discuss with individuals the opportunities offered by their r spective organizations. In addition, a panel of experts will discuss "The Employment Outlook for Today's High School Graduates Compared To Graduates With Two Years Post-High School Training."

PANEL MEMBERS will be Bruce MacFadden, Detroit Metropolitan Youth Center of the Michigan Employment Security Commission; and A. W. Gaulzetti, employment manager, personnel relations, Michigan Bell Telephone Co. They will answer questions from the floor.

The program has been planned to help adults interested in continuing their education as well as high school dropouts and students from grades 9 to 12.

Parents are urged to attend the session with their high school-age children. In addition to Farmington secondary schools, invitations have been extended to Our Lady of Sorrows students and Northville High School.

Hamlin Works for Good Roads

Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors recently attended a conference in Washington, D.C. representing the National Association of County Officers of which he is a member of the board of directors.

He met with the American Association of State Highway Officials and the National Association of County Engineers to discuss a needs study in all 50 states on all roads and streets to determine the financial needs for consideration by Congress of Federal funds for roads after 1972.

Mr. Hamlin stated, "Approximately 41,000 miles of interstate highway system will be completed by 1972 and the need for a study of feeder roads into this interstate system will be necessary for the orderly transition of traffic due to the increased population demands of the citizens. The State of Michigan is in the process of completing its portion of the overall interstate highway system of the Nation."

AN OPEN LETTER

TO THE VOTERS OF FARMINGTON

I wish to call your attention to a most Outstanding Candidate for City Council.

I refer to none other than VIRGIL CORNWELL.

This is our opportunity to be grateful and wise.

You can travel from the (Canadian) Arctic to the (Florida) Keys and never see a finer market place than this our Downtown Farmington Center.

This did not just happen. It is the result of clever planning, vast knowledge and faithful execution — This is VIRGIL CORNWELL at work.

Now he stands ready — willing and able to again serve you.

I urge you to vote for VIRGIL CORNWELL — urge your friends and neighbors to do likewise.

Let us give him all the votes and confidence he needs—

This can enrich Farmington.

Sincerely,

Clyde B. Kennedy
