Around Warner Farms

Darlene Wilson GR. 4-1620

This is the first week for the column Around Warner Farms. I know that in order to make this column a success by reporting all the happenings in Warner Frams, I will need the help of the people living in Warner Farms. Please just give me a buzz at the above number. —Darlene Wilson

Mrs. Victor Ellis spent a week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Glen Tinham on Manning. Mrs. Ellis welcomed the brief rest. She had just completed a busy month visiting and seeing the sights in New York. This trip also included her first airplane flight. She has now returned to her home in Bay City.

The Henry Guildes, formerly of Inkster, Michigan, now are residents on Manning.

Susie and Bobby Burling of Mayfield are returning to school after an extended illness.

Carlton P. Hardy will arrive Thursday from Hampton, Virginia, to visit his nephew and family, the George Hardys of Manning.

Mrs. Paul Hosack of Brackenridge, Pennsylvania, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Perry of Manning.

The Robert Burlings of Mayfield gave a dinner party on Monday, March 2, in honor of Mrs. Burling's father, Clarence Cascaden, on his 76th birthday. The party of twelve included old friends and members of the family.

Mrs. Joan Fleming and Mrs. Helen Hardy gave a going away luncheon for Mrs. Peg Trevarthen and Mrs. Janet Perry on Tuesday of this week at the Hardy residence on Manning. The guests included 18 close friends of the two ladies from Warner Farms. The Charles Trevarthens are moving to California and the Paul Perrys to Florida.

At Home in Old Homestead

Jacqueline Davis GR. 4-1230

We now have fifty-seven families in this subdivision. John and Janet Klof and children have moved to 35967 Hardenburg Road from northwest Detroit. The Klof children are Susan, 11, John, who will be 10 this month; James, 8 in April; Michael, 7 in March; Mary Ann, 5 in May; and Jacqueline, who will be 1 in June.

Don Greenbury, one of our fairly new residents, was elected president of the Suburban Shrine Club in February. This club, which takes in members from Livonia, Plymouth and parts of Farmington, holds its meetings in Plymouth.

SICKNESS seems to be prevalent in the area right now. Two year old Ann Leidlein has just recovered from scarlet fever. Her five week old sister, Martha, is improving but will have to remain in Children's Hospital in Detroit for about ten more days. Martha has been hospitalized since February 19.

Larry Dale, son of Allen and Marguerite Dale, celebrated his eighth birthday on Saturday. His grandparents, who had planned to spend the day at the Dale home, were restricted by the weather, so Larry's parents treated him and his brother and sister to dinner at Guffin's Steak Pit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Stoinski, Sophia Kaznecki's brother and sister-in-law, and Rip and Betsy Kenny, her neice and nephew, were at the Kaznecki home this past weekend to welcome Larry Stoinski home. However, Larry's discharge from the Air Force was delayed by paper work, so the guest of honor did not make the party. Now he is expected home from Topeka, Kansas, about March 15.

THE APPLESEEDS will hold their next square dance on Saturday, March 14, at the home of Bob and Jean Raddatz. Please call either Irene Barth, GR. 4-8463, or Yevette Riebe, GR. 6-0265, so that they can plan the refreshments. Make your call before Friday, March 13. Don't think that you must know the dances before you can join. The caller, Jack Worthington, is very patient with those of us who don't know our right foot from our left.

The Old Homestead Association held its second annual meeting on Monday, March 2, at the home of Bill and Shirley Simmons. Forty-one members were present at the meeting.

Elected to office were: president, Bob Leidlein, GR. 4-7505; vice-president, Bill Simmons, GR. 4-6332; secretary, Jean Latimer, GR. 4-7093; and treasurer, Bob Raddatz, GR. 4-9537.

Committee chairmen are: approval committee, Ken Humm, GR. 4-9065; maintenance committee, Lee North, GR. 4-8559; chairman of social committee, Florence Zeglen, GR. 6-0375.

If you have problems or suggestions that concern the Association or the Old Homestead Subdivision these are the people that you should contact.

Sunday dinner guests at the Salyards home were Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Carnell and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Kunz, all from Detroit. Cards and conversation took up the evening.

CONVALESCING from recent surgery, Gerald Bolyard of Detroit is spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bolyard on Hubbard Avenue.

The neighborhood was shocked by the sudden death, Feb. 24, of Joseph E. Roberts, at his home on Mayfield Ave. He had been in poor health for a number of years and spent most of this last winter in Veterans' Hospital. Having resided on Mayfield Avenue for around twenty years, he had many friends and acquaintances in the community. Surviving him are his wife, Marie, and two daughters, Mrs. Edward (Clara) Kochanek of Livonia, and Mrs. Robert (Au-[illegible]) Padot of Monroe. There are also six grandchildren, and a brother, John Roberts of Monroe. The body rested at the Heeney Funeral Home in Farmington. Mass was in Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Farmington, at 9 a.m. Friday. Upon the return of the cemetery, the family, relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Kochanek for a noon dinner. Mrs. Roberts will remain with her daughter, Mrs. Kochanek, for a few days.

Wednesday, February 25th, at 5 a.m., a son, James Michael, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padot, in Monroe. Mrs. Padot is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Marie Roberts, Mayfield Ave.

David Read from South Lyon spent Tuesday with his grandmother, Mrs. Austin Ault on Brentwood Avenue.

Beth Ann, Mary Lynn, and Joan Roberts, from Monroe were visiting with their aunts, the Misses Lora and Freda Ault, Norfolk Ave., last Saturday evening.

An unusually fine large opposum is spending the winter in an outbuilding on the Melvin E. Ault property, Mayfield Ave. Occasionally he is seen scouting around for food. Another such animal is making his headquarters on the Charles Armstrong property, one and a half blocks from the Aults home.

Publications On Community Problems Out

A series of publications to help people and agencies concerned with community problems will be published by the Michigan State University Institute for Community Development and Services.

These publications are a phase of the total research program of the Institute, points out Charles R. Adrian, Mr. Adrian is the director of the new Institute, which is a part of the M.S.U. Continuing Education Service.

"The publications will be designed to help interested individuals and organizations solve their community problems," explains Walter E. Freeman, Institute chief of research.

The publications will be of four major types, each seeking to perform different functions.

A "General Information Series" will be written for those responsible for community organization and planning. These publications will present both general research and compilations of essential, useful facts.

"Research Reports" will present case studies of some of the projects now being conducted or to be undertaken by the Institute in Michigan communities. Mr. Freeman points out, "These bulletins will be selected from community programs offering examples and valuable experiences met by communities in the study of their problems."

Reports also will be made of significant problems. Whereas the "General Information Series" will be broad in nature, this series will be more specific to help community leaders and professionals with the kinds of technical data necessary for a more effective performance of their jobs.

The fourth kind of publication will be "Special Research Monographs." Dealing with basic research of interest to the scientist engaged in the study of community organization, this series will not be limited to problems which have a direct application to the development of the community, but also will be concerned with research which contributes to the various sciences found in the Institute.

The publications will be available to interested individuals, organizations, agencies, and others. Inquiries may be directed to the M.S.U. Institute for Community Development and Services, which is located on the campus in the MSU Kellogg Center. The Institute program is financed chiefly by a five-year grant from the W. K. Kellog Foundation at Battle Creek.

Involve Citizens In Curriculum

School people must help citizens to understnad the need for changes in the must use them to help determine recommndations, must explain to them why must lad them to brag about new developments, Dr. Hand concluded.

Christian Science

Man's God-given right to freedom and health will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man."

Scriptural selections from the King James Version of the Bible will include Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the woman "which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (13: 11-17).

The following will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (225:1): "What is it that binds man with iron shackles to sin, sickness, and death? Whatever enslaves man is opposed to the divine government. Truth makes man free."

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (64:8): "Now, O Lord, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand."
