Chapman Leads Falcon Cagers In Scoring; Displays Accuracy

The shooting abilities of Harvey Chapman helped the Farmington Falcons record a better than average basketball record during the 1958-59 cage season.

Pre-season predictions of a dismal year were proven wrong as the Falcons racked up a conference record of six victories against four defeats to tie for second place in the Inter-Lakes Conference. Probably their biggest single accomplishment of the season was their upset win over the "unbeatable" league champion Berkley team.

In non-conference play the Falcons did not fare so well, winning only three while losing five. One of these losses came at the hands of Livonia Bentley in the opening round of district tournament play.

In scoring, Chapman was way out in front notching a total of 270 points, according to statistics released by the athletic department this week. Of this total, 224 were scored on field goals and the remaining 66 via the gift-toss line. Chapman's shooting accuracy in both departments was exceptionally high. He hit on almost 50 percent of the field goals he attempted and on over 70 percent of his free throw chances.

LITTLE TOM Grimshaw, spark of the team, was second high scorer with a total of 173 points. He hit on 67 field goals in 181 attempts for 370 percent and 134 points. At the free throw line he connected 39 times out of 64 for .609 percent.

Frank Clappison and Ken Cobb were the other two players scoring over 100 points during the season. Clappison collected a total of 110 points on 43 field goals and 24 free throws and Cobb 106 points on 41 field goals and 24 free throws.

IN TOTAL points scored for the season, the Falcons almost equaled the efforts of their opponents, but not quite. The FHS cagers scored 938 points to their 18 foes' 940.

Besides being among the top four scorers, Cobb also led in the rebound department. In 16 of the 18 games for which information on rebounds was available, Cobb was credited with 92 rebounds on offense and 129 on defense.

Need Sponsors For Baseball For Boys Team

Sponsors for teams which will be taking part in the Farmington Baseball for Boys program this summer are still needed, Hub Barth, an official of the organization, disclosed this week.

Still needed are two sponsors for major league Babe Ruth teams and at least 15 others for minor farm teams. Anyone interested in sponsoring a team this summer is asked to contact Barth, GR 4-9283 or GR 6-0060, as soon as possible.

BUSINESS places contributing $200 as sponsors of Little League major teams have been: Michigan Screw Products, Harris Homestead House, Star Cutter Co., Farmington Dairy, Max Hawkins Water Softeners, Barbello's Carry-Out.

Making $50 contributions as sponsors of minor farm teams to date have been: Brenners Market, Lucas Service, Kendallwood Mobile, Bradley Rexall Drugs, Royal Clothes, Pixieland, Quigley Machine Co., A. J. Primm, Realtor, O Sole Mio Pizzeria, State Wide Storm Sash, Eight-Grand Radio & TV, Berling-Melbach, Ford and Farmington Enterprise.

Over 600 boys are expected to take part in the baseball program this summer which will require more sponsors and help than ever before.

Women Golfers to Meet at Glen Oaks

The Women's Suburban Golf Association will start its third season of golfing at Glen Oaks Country Club on May 15 and continue for 17 weeks.

A luncheon and meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 7, at Glen Oaks.

Anyone wishing further information is asked to call either Pat Vorce, GR 4-8561, or Bern Ellis, MA 6-6396.

Parents, Sons Invited to Baseball Rally Tuesday

Boys and their parents living south of 11 Mile Road are urged to attend the Farmington Baseball for Boys annual Baseball Rally Tuesday, March 31, at 7 p.m. at the Farmington Senior High gymnasium on Shiawassee Road.

Details of the Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball program planned this summer will be revealed. Registration information will also be given.

Both mothers and fathers of boys wishing to take part in the program are requested to be present with their sons.

John K. Cotton, athletic director for the Farmington school system, will be guest speaker. Mrs. Robert Shooltz, president of the Baseball for Boys Women's Auxiliary, will also speak. Help from mothers having sons taking part in the program is needed badly, it was emphasized.

Boys born after July 31, 1947, and prior to August 1, 1951, are eligible to take part in the Little League program. The Babe Ruth League is open to boys and prior to August 1, 1946.

Boys wishing to take part in the Little League program must be available for practice and games from April 16 through July 31 and abide by all rules of the league, it was emphasized. Those wishing to play in the Babe Ruth League must be available for practice and games through June and July and also abide league rules.

It was pointed out, however, that boys engaged in high school varsity and junior varsity athletic activities will not be expected to report for practice until the school program is concluded.

North Farm. Baseball Rally Slated Monday

A 1959 Opener Rally program for North Farmington Baseball for Boys, Inc. will be held Monday night, March 30, at 7:30 p.m. at the Dunckel Junior High School.

With the establishment of the North Farmington Baseball for Boys, Inc. the summer baseball program for boys in the north Farmington area was also expanded. This year, for the first time, a four team Babe Ruth League will be formed for boys 13-15.

The Little League will again be made up of six uniformed major teams.

Both leagues will also have farm teams for less experienced players.

These leagues are open to all boys living in the area from 11 Mile to 14 Mile roads bounded by Inkster Road on the east and Haggerty Road on the west.

Boys and their fathers are urged to attend the Opener Rally Monday and get the latest details and information on plans for this summer.

"An interesting program on baseball has been arranged for the evening," a spokesman for the organization said.

GAA Volleyball Play Started

Volleyball will be the program for the next 10 weeks in G.A.A. The girls played volleyball for 10 weeks before this semester and have started playing it again. Volleyball champions for the second group of games will be selected at the end of the session.

Carol Dustin's team were champions for the first round.

The next sport for the club will be baseball which will start in about three weeks.
