Christian Science

The scientific basis of spiritual healing will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator."

Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the "man which had the withered hand" will be read, including this passage: "And looking round about them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other" (Luke 6:10).

Correlative selections read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (313:23-26): "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause."

The Golden Text is from Revelation (15:3): "Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of Saints."

About 26 percent of all those eligible to purchase resident fishing licenses did so in Michigan during 1958. Altogether, about 1,418,000 residents took advantage of Michigan fishing last year.

Antioch Lutheran Preparing For Vacation Church School

Monday through Friday, June 15-26 are the dates chosen for the Vacation Church School of Antioch Evangelical Church.

Again this year sessions will be held in the game rooms and back yards of private homes of the congregation.

This setting is chosen in order to give the program a "school outside of school" atmosphere. It also enables the Vacation Church School to carry its message over a greater area of residents, a spokesman said.

Sessions will begin at 9:15 a.m. and conclude at 11:45. They will be held at the following homes:

Nursery and Kindergarten (3, 4, and 5 year olds and children completing Kindergarten in June) — the Gatzke home, 32370 Hearthstone, Kendallwood III.

Primary (1st, 2nd, and 3rd grades, completed)—the Jones home, 28311 Quail Hollow, Kendallwood I.

Junior (4th, 5th, 6th grades completed) — the Brogren home, 32364 Baintree, Kendallwood III.

Junior and Senior High (young people having completed grade 7)—the Lander home, 32230 Hearthstone, Kendallwood III.

The theme of the lessons this year will be "We belong to God" and it is planned as a "workshop in Christian living" with a related program of creative handicrafts.

There is no registration fee but each Friday a children's offering will be received as part of the worship in each home. To enroll your child or to receive further information, call Mrs. Jones at GR. 4-8238 or Mrs. Gatzke at GR. 6-0298.

Antioch Evangelical Lutheran Church is the United Lutheran Congregation representing all Lutheran bodies of the National Lutheran Council in the north Farmington area. The congregation worships at 10:45 a.m. on Sunday in the O.E. Dunckel Junior High School on 12 Mile Road, and Sunday Church School begins at 9:30 a.m.

A revised schedule for summer worship will soon be announced in this paper.

Shepherd King Officers Named

At the first Congregational Assembly conducted in their new church building, members of Shepherd King Lutheran Church, West Maple and Middlebelt Rd., elected congregational officers for the coming twelve months.

David T. Schwinck was elected president for a second one-year term. James R. Loupe was re-elected first vice president, while Robert F. Watts was newly elevated to the post of second vice president.

Donald Karrow became general secretary. James Ekert is Financial secretary, John House is chairman of the physical property committee.

Members of the new board of Elders include: for worship Derald Katterman; for stewardship, Forrest Strand; for Christian education, James Loupe; for evangelism Harold Jones; for welfare, Edward Koback; for youth affairs, George Rayman.

The above elected officers will constitute the Church Council for the coming year.

Names of successful candidates were announced to the congregation by Rev. A. Karl Boehmke, pastor, who conducted a brief installation ceremony during the worship service on the morning of May 24.

Furnishings are now being acquired for the chapel and educational rooms in the recently completed building. Grading continues on the seven-acre church site. Formal dedication is planned for the first Sunday in October.

First Baptist Church Alters Worship Hours

The first Baptist Church, corner of Shiawassee and Farmington Roads, will alter its schedule of worship on Sunday beginning June 7 this year.

For the last six years, following considerable growth, members of the First Baptist Church have been holding two morning worship services with the Bible School session at an hour between the two.

Beginning next Sunday members and friends of the church will revert to only one session for both the Bible School and the worship service of the church.

In keeping with the schedule of most churches in Detroit and area the Bible School will be held prior to the worship service, the Bible School session coming at 9:45 a.m. and the worship service at 11:00 a.m. The evening worship service will be held at 7:00, preceded by the youth hour at 6:00, as heretofore.

During the morning worship service the church will continue to serve the parents coming with small children. The cradle-roll and nursery will accomodate infants and toddlers. In the Junior Church session, instead of the two groups formerly meeting there will be three, one session each for the beginners, primary, and Junior age children.

Midweek service will be on Wednesday evenings at 7:15 during the summer months. The reason for the change of hour lies in the plans of the church to occupy the new building, now being completed, in the early fall. It is felt that the schedule indicated will be of the greatest service to the largest number of people at this time.

The US Government now pays storage on enough surplus food stocks to provide each American family with 24 bushels of corn, 19 bushels of wheat, 4¼ pounds of dried milk, 2½ pounds of cheese and 2¼ pounds of butter.

Church to Fete '59 Graduates

The 1959 high school graduates of the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian St. (near Eight Mile and Inkster), will be feted at a reception held by the Collegiate group of the Church on Sunday, June 7, at 8:30 p.m.

Sponsors of the Collegiate group are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Agar.

This group meets every other Sunday night after church and also has outings and trips and social fellowship. They conduct a church service at Maybury Sanitorium each month and also a mission service downtown. Most of them are active in the Sunday School and club work of the church.

The reception, to which all of the church is invited and at which refreshments will be served, is an official reception of the high school graduates into the Collegiate group.

Graduates are also guests of honor at a formal banquet which will be held Sunday, June 13.

In addition to the high school graduates, Rex Agar is graduating from the Detroit Bible Institute and is anticipating taking a pastorate in Michigan.

Strawberry Festival Scheduled June 14

A strawberry Festival, sponsored by the Women's Circle of the Riverside Chapel Presbyterian Church, will be held Sunday, June 14, from 2 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Blanton of 32239 W. Staman Circle, Farmington.

Anyone wishing tickets is asked to call GR 4-1275.

HEALTH CHECKUPS VITAL

Many thousands more people could be saved from cancer each year if men and women generally would have a complete medical examination annually, the American Cancer Society says. An ACS survey shows that the number of Americans having annual checkups has more than doubled since 1948.

Olivet College to Honor Rev. Read of N. Church

The Reverend Ralph H. Read, minister of North Congregational Church, Northwestern and Lahser, will give the Baccalaureate sermon at the annual graduation at Olivet College on June 7 at 11:00 a.m.

Later, at the Commencement exercises on the same day at 2:00 p.m. the College will honor the Rev. Read by conferring on him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Rev. Read is a native of Denver, Colorado, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Grinnell College, Iowa in 1925, and his Bachelor of Divinity from the Union Theological Seminary in New York City in 1928.

Previous to coming to the North Congregational Church, Rev. Read was minister at the Hollis Avenue Congregational Church of Bellaire, Long Island, for ten years. He founded this Church with 25 members and left it in 1938 with 500 members and a beautiful colonial church house.

For the next four years, he was minister of the Wyoming Presbyterian Church at Milburn, New Jersey. While there he and his congregation doubled the membership and the budget for their church. IT was after he served for three years as national director of "Children to Palestine," a Christian interfaith organization helping the children of the Near East, that Mr. Read was called to North Church.

It was in the fall of 1955, just as the congregation of the North Woodward Congregational Church, Woodward at Blaine, was about to move out to their new present site of 36 acres that Mr. Read came to North Church.

Since then the beautiful sanctuary of North Church has been built. A year ago the Mabel E. Long Fellowship Hall, a gift of Thomas G. Long in memory of his wife, was completed, and now work has begun on the third wing, the Russell A. Shields, Jr., Educational Hall, a gift of his father. Only a small chapel remains to be constructed before the total plan of the Church edifice will be complete.

Under Mr. Read's guidance, the Church membership has grown to over 1100. Likewise, North Church has grown in activities. During his pastorate, monthly Wednesday Church Night Family Dinners have been held and are well attended, and the Adelphi, the adult men's group whose members assist immeasurably in molding the inner life of the Church, was organized. The Junior and Senior Pilgrim Fellowships are active, as are the Boy Scouts and many other organizations that tend to create good will in the community.

Read has been a frequent contributor to the "Christian Century" and "Advance" Magazines and last year published his book, "In Time of Trouble," which is a guide to a deep and abiding faith in God. He occasionally preaches on TV and radio on Sunday mornings. He is a popular speaker before young people's and college groups. Mr. Read is Chairman of the committee on Evangelism of the Detroit Congregation Church Association, and a member of the Board of Trustees.

St. Mary Hosp. Tea Scheduled

To initiate their forthcoming membership drive, The St. Mary Hospital Guild will hold a kick-off Tea at the home of Mrs Fred Antil, 16855 Mayfield, Livonia, on June 10, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The affair is being given for all those women who are interested in offering their services or becoming members of the Guild, so that they may obtain information about St. Mary Hospital and the Guild's volunteer work. Prospective members will learn how they can contribute to this worthy organization.

A cordial invitation is extended also to those who live in the surrounding communities that will be serviced by St. Mary Hospital.

Light refreshments will be served, and it is hoped that all interested women will feel free to come and enjoy the afternoon.

Studies show that driver error caused 85 per cent of the highway accidents in 1958.
