Staman Acres

Gail Taylor
GR. 4-0949

Ben and Marie Schotten and family went to Grand Rapids, Ohio, last weekend to pick Jimmy up at Nazareth Hall Military School. From there they went to Grand Rapids, Michigan where they spent the remaining weekend celebrating Christmas with Ben and Maries' parents.

Saint Anthony's Guild of Our Lady of Sorrows met last week at the home of Gertie Bursick. The main topic was reports from the Christmas Fair held a few weeks ago.

SATURDAY evening, Virginia and Peter Klopp had Bev. and Jim Ellis, Joanne and Dick Brown, Sharon and Naiff Kelel Charlotte and Mary Kemp in to help celebrate Ellises anniversary and Joanne Browns and Sharon Kelel's birthday.

Did you know that the Staman Acres Civic Association treasury, gives your subdivision the Yule Tide look, with lights and decorations at Christmas?

RECENTLY MARIAN and Al Reynolds had weekend guests, the Elmer Youngquists from Illinois and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Raymond from Dearborn.

Monday evening Leo and Marjorie Sivy had all the subdivision bowlers in for cocktails and "Christmas Cheer." About forty people were present and from Sivys' went on to the bowling alley.

MERRY CHRISTMAS to all of you, friends and neighbors!

LOIS HOELSCHER
GR. 4-0460

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the sub the Christmas lights are brightly shining and jolly old Santa and his reindeer gaily prance across Hilliard's lawn. Nance and Herman Trick of Briarhill have a beautiful Nativity Scene displayed on their front lawn.

ELVA AND HAROLD Bunting have just returned from an interesting trip out West. During the two weeks, they spent a few days in Tucson, Arizona; visited with friends in Los Angelos, and saw the sights in Las Vegas. They also stopped at the Grand Canyon, Painted Desert, and the Petrified Forest. Elva said they saw a lot of places but didn't do anything exciting.

However, their car needs a new paint job and a new windshield after being sand blasted as they drove through a sand storm on the Mojave. And, they outran the blizzard in New Mexico. She said if they'd started out just a few hours later, they might still be out there on the road having food dropped from airplanes.

WE ARE HAPPY to report that our hospitalized friends are home for the holidays. Ferd Bolle of Briar Hill is home and Mrs. Sally Peterson, 23380 Wildwood Trail, is recuperating at home after undergoing an operation at Redford Community Hospital. She is getting along fine and would be happy to have visitors. Albert Kirby is expected home for the holidays after spending a couple weeks at St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac. He is well on his way to recovery and expects to return to school after the holidays.

Jim and Mike Chellman are home from College for Christmas vacation.

WE WELCOME two new neighbors: Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stuckey who purchased the Tamsen home at 28371 Wildwood Trail. Don and Joyce Tamsen have moved to their new home in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boring are the new owners of the Wells' home at 28036 Briar Hill.

Our best wishes to our column friends for a happy, healthful, and safe holiday.
