News From Briar Hill

FRANCES MANN
MA. 6-5946

Our weekend before last was most pleasant as Jack's parents came from Akron, Ohio to visit us. On Sunday we all drove down to Bowling Green, Ohio to visit Jack's brother who is attending the University there. From there his parents returned to Akron and we came home to Farmington.

Sympathy is extended to Doreen Echols and her family on the sudden death of her father several weeks ago.

JEAN DENARO IS interested in hearing from wives of Ford employees who might be interested in attending meetings of the Ford Wives Club. They are held the fourth Monday of every month at the Central Office Building. Call Jean at 626-7110.

Art and Barbara Acker and son John spent the latter part of August vacationing in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. On the way down they visited with Art's brother and family in Charlotte, North Carolina. Other places visited were Miami, the Cypress Gardens and Silver Springs.

JOHNNY ACKER'S official birthday was September 1 when he became five but since he was in Florida, he postponed his party until September 10. Joining him for cake and ice cream were Erin and Holly Dunivan, Joey and Johnny Robertson, Kim Sloane, and Chris Baer from Kendallwood.

Floria Devlin caught quite a few ladies by surprise on Wednesday, Sept. 19. She called them for a come-as-you-are right-now coffee brunch at her home. The few who did show up properly dressed were kidded quite a bit.

James and Margaret Sharkey returned recently from a month's trip to Europe. They visited the Lourdes in France, spent several days in Paris, then went to Lincoln, England to visit Margaret's brother and family. Most of their time was spent in Ireland - visiting brothers, sisters and cousins and all in Dublin, Cork and the western part of Ireland. They also included a trip to Killarney. All their traveling was done by plane.

There was a birthday party for John Lewis when he became two years old on Monday, Sept. 24. Sharing in the fun were Jackie Robinson, Barry and Nancy McMath, Ross Ruehle, Ricky and Kathy Homier.

LITTLE CAROL ROBINSON is now one year old as her birthday was Friday, Sept. 21. Her grandparents were on hand to help blow the candle out.

The weekend before last three of our families entertained foreign students who are taking special courses at the University of Michigan. A large group of them were bused to Cranbrook where the hosts met them at 5 p.m. on Saturday and returned them at 5 p.m. on Sunday.

BOB AND MARGE McMATH of Old Bedford welcomed into their home Dipak Shah, 20 years of age, from Bombay, India. He is studying engineering and upon returning to India will join his father's manufacturing firm. He was quite interested in their home - intrigued that there were no servants, interested in the heating system and dishwasher and fascinated by the automatic can opener. On Sunday after attending church, they visited Northland and the buildings surrounding the area. Then they went to Metropolitan Airport and an inspection of the Ford hangar. Dipak related that all schools are private in India and that English is the language spoken. He also told of a daily morning religious ritual where his mother and his five sisters bathed, then attired themselves in a white robe. His mother and married sisters also put a thick, red makeup on their forehead. Dipak is a Hindu and as such he is not eat meat, only vegetables.

Ken and Betty Hopkins of Old Bedford opened their home to Mr. Ivan Petrovic from Belgrade, Yugoslavia. He is thirty years of age, married, has a young son and is taking special education in architecture. They all attended a national meeting of the Industrial Design Institute and enjoyed cocktails and dinner at the Park Shelton. They then were on hand for the opening of the "Design In Detroit Show" at the MacGregor Memorial at Wayne. Saturday evening late they drove through downtown Detroit and then returned Sunday so their guest could view the buildings. As his subject is architecture, he was quite fascinated with Detroit structures.

SHELDON AND MARY Hedges of Beacontree were very pleased to make the acquaintanc of Fumiyo Sakuraba, a teacher from Tokyo, Japan. Her father is a Buddhist priest. Theirs was the first American home their guest had visited and her first taste of home cooking. She was quite fascinated with Amerihan kitchens and the preparation of food. The Japanese eat to sustain theirselves, not for enjoyment.

She was very interested in hearing about our school systems and said that in Japanese schools they are taught to write and read American but not to speak it. Saturday evening Miss Sakuraba showed them slides of Japan and then she was shown slides of travels the Hedges had made.

The children of the neighborhood came over Sunday afternoon and were enthralled to see her in full Japanese dress. Miss Sakuraba told them the thing that impressed her the most about the United States was the beautiful flowers and green grass and the Hedges were most impressed by their guest's graciousness.

Oakland Girls Scheduled for County Visits

"Oakland Girls," comprised of young Republican women from the ages of 16 to 30, expect to add a little glamour to the campaign trail of all county GOP candidates this next month.

At present the girls are scheduled for Thursday and Friday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. and on Saturday afternoons to appear at county shopping centers. Their first stop will be at the Pontiac Mall and Miracle Mile this Friday.

FIRST INITIATED during the 1960 political campaign, the "Oakland Girl" program was set up as an adjunct to regular party activities in an effort to lend a little glamour to special events and meetings.

Dressed in blue and white and red and white dresses with white sashes, "Oakland Girls" are coordinated through Oakland County Republican Headquarters and are scheduled by their Special Events committee.
