Christian Science Sermon Scheduled

Man's dependence on God will be emphasized at all Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings from the Bible Lesson on "God" will include this passage from II Chronicles (16:29): "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto his name." The theme will be taken up in accompanying readings from the Christian Science textbook, including these lines: "No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 275).

Let us open our affections to the Principle that moves all in harmony—from the falling of a sparrow to the rolling of a world.

Girl Scout News

After a rough start this year, without a leader or co-leader, Girl Scout Troop 831 of Farmington got off to smooth sailing, with a new leader, Mrs. L. Hudon.

The first troop activity was a Flag presented to us by the Johnson Post, Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars in Dearborn. The Flag was given by their President Mrs. Cleary, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. Twelve girls and three mothers were present at the service and the girls went home very proud of their flag.

A PARTY WAS planned and attended by this troop at the Sara Fisher Home on Dec. 2. We were lucky at this time to get a new co-leader to help, her name is Mrs. Marie Barber. The girls made balls with candy and a gift inside, to give to their new friends. After a tour through the different cottages, we came home with many names and addresses to carry on this friendship.

On Dec. 9, nine new girls joined our troop with a Flag and Candlelight Ceremony. The new scouts are Kathleen McGrath, Kathy Hwdwa, Sharon Schulta, Catherine Gross, Lu Ann Lilley, Elaine Stowe, Anette Stowe, Karen Gilley and Claudia McHugh. The late investiture was due to lack of an assistant to help.

OUR YEAR ENDED up with a Christmas Party on Dec. 16. All 22 girls were given a little corsage made by the leaders. After ice cream and cookies, they had the fun of cracking there own jewelry marbles and making gifts with them.

The climax was a Nativity Scene with Patrol 3 and 4 as the figures and Patrol 1 and 2 singing Christmas Carols.

The Mothers Committee were invited and attended. Ending the party and the year, we all sang "We Wish You A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year."
