BEAUTY QUEENS ADDED a colorful note to the annual Old Fashioned Fourth festivities held in Kendallwood No. 1 Subdivision. The teen beauties were an attractive addition to the July 4 parade, in which many teenagers took part in preparing and organizing. Adult committee chairmen credited the teenagers with providing the most support in recent years to the annual holiday program which always has had an enthusiastic group of sub-teens participating.

This week, niece Polly Shields of Lima, Ohio is visiting Pat and Roland Clouse of Laurelwood and next week her cousin, Susan Shields, will visit.

JERRY AND Janice Pardo of Meadowlark journeyed to Decatur, Illinois and while there celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary.

Renting a camper trailer Bob and Ruth Vanden Henvel and children Linda and Ricky traveled to New York City to visit relatives, stopping along the way to view Niagara Falls. While in New York they visited Radio City and all the points of interest as well as extensively covering the World's Fair.

ON OUR sick list this week are Michael Clouse, recuperating from a T & A at Children's Hospital, and Mary Wischmeyer from an adult tonsillectomy in Lansing.

Happy birthday to Richard Skaugen, 2, Richard Degnon and Mara Quinn.
