BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Donna Marie Champagne on Lilac Street entertained several of her little friends to make her seventh birthday a bit more fun. With a tree having balloon flowers for the table decorations, and a big clown balloon floating around, the ice cream and cake was a happy finish to her party.

Blue Star Mothers

By McINTYRE

The Blue Star Mothers of Farmington, Chapter 49, met Thursday, November 16, at the Town Hall, where they completed their plans to visit Mayburry Sanatorium on Tuesday, November 21, to supply warm flannelette pajamas to the veterans in need of them.

They also planned to visit all of the veterans there with gifts and greetings to make their Christmas away from home more pleasant.

The mothers are finding many families of our servicemen needing financial help as our government hasn't made any provisions for them as in previous years.

The December regular business meeting will be held on Thursday, December 14, at 10 a.m. in the Town Hall. There will be a potluck luncheon, election of officers, donations for Christmas baskets, and an exchange of gifts among members.

About one-third of the area of the United States is forest land. Of this an area of approximately 461,700,000 acres grows, or is capable of growing, commercially valuable timber.

SUNSHINE LADY SAYS SMILE IS GOOD MEDICINE

"A cheerful heart is a good medicine", Proverbs 17:22. Nature laughs; everything in nature that is pleasant is honored with smiling or laughing adjectives. Poets vie with one another in choosing words such as happy, smiling, joyous, bright, merry, rippling, and glad. Add a few to the list yourself and you will agree with me.

Another good medicine is to be contented with your lot. You'll find it doesn't pay to worry too far in advance of your troubles. A Civil War priest, Father Abram Ryan, once said, "Life is a burden; bear it. Life is a duty, dare it. Life is a thorn crown, wear it."

Do you have a problem? The best way I know to fight it is to help a fellow man with his. Recently a man tried to take his life. All during his long stay in the hospital I sent him cards every day, cards that came from the 10 cent store. The man was completely unknown to me; later I found he was worth a great deal of money. I do not know whether he even looked at the cards or not, but I would like to think that in the coming days he will stop and remember that no matter into what walk of life we belong, life is worth a great deal as long as we have a friend.

I know a great many people who have so very much, as far as a big car, a beautiful home, and lovely clothes go. But they are not contented because they have never helped an unknown friend. They can see no point in sending a card or buying a small gift for a person they do not know. Many times I am told, even by members of my own family, "If you would look after yourself first, you would have a great deal more than you have now." It's so very true that a great many times I have gone without a much needed pair of shoes to do something for another, without so much as a note of thanks. But the true friends I have made in my life are worth more to me than all that money could by.

If you have never known the joy of bringing a bit of cheer to an unknown friend, why not choose this Thanksgiving week to do it?

Mrs. Leslie Bolyard of Farmington is ill in University Hospital, Ann Arbor. Then there is that wonderful old couple, he is 84 and she is nearing 80. Mr. and Mrs. George Welsh of Mayfield Avenue, Route 2, Farmington. They get very lonely at times. A small surprise in the form of some goodies would make them see that this world is indeed kind.

Mrs. Mary Blay, 1478 Garland Avenue, Detroit, is badly in need of cheer.

A Bible lesson for our little friend this week: find a picture of the Pilgrims leaving for America. In the hands of William Bradford you'll see the Bible. With it, any future can be faced. By faith in it and in God, marvelous changes can be wrought.

In World War I Lloyd George said: "In peace and in war, King Coal is the paramount Lord of Industry. It enters into every article of consumption and utility." Winston Churchill's paraphrase in World War II was: "War is made with steel and steel is made from coal. Coal is the foundation and, to a very large extent, the measure of our whole war effort."

Isaac Bonds Mark 50th Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. ISAAC BOND

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bond, of 30005 Orchard Lake Road, were honored on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding at an open house arranged by their sons and daughters on Sunday, November 19.

Yellow and gold mums centered the tea table and gold tapers were used. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with bells and gold leaves.

Mrs. Fred M. Bond, sister of Mrs. Bond and bridesmaid of the original wedding party, was here from South Bend, Washington. Other relatives and many friends were here from Farmington, Pontiac, Detroit and Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond have lived in this vicinity the fifty years of their marriage and the anniversary party was held in the home to which they moved in 1900.

They are the parents of four children; Mrs. James D. Allen of Detroit, Howard I. Bond of Pontiac, Mrs. Harlem H. Morris of Farmington and Floyd A. Bond of Claremont, California. All were present except their son Floyd.

Mr. Bond has managed his farm and has also been very active in local affairs. Mrs. Bond is a club woman especially active in the Order of the Eastern Star in Farmington and Oakland County.

Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. H. Reed Webster, Mrs. Wm. Sonnenberg, Mrs. Charles Lussenden, Mrs. Carl Hinbern, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. Frank Allyn and Mrs. Katherine Banfield.

CHRISTINE DIAMOND AND JAMES MACKIE WED NOVEMBER 11

Palms and white chrysanthemums formed the background for the wedding of Christine Diamond and James Mackie November 11 at the Calvary Methodist Church in Redford. Rev. John W. Greenwood officiated at the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Diamond of Redford, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mackie of Farmington.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace over satin, with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, and a full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap outlined with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Marilee Kelly, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was attired in a gown of aqua and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Don Mackie, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Harry Stolliker and Bill Danes were ushers.

Mrs. Diamond chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue dress, and Mrs. Mackie wore green crepe. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

The new Mrs. Mackie is a senior at the University of Michigan and Mr. Mackie is a graduate and now music director of Cupac High School.

After a reception held in the church parlors, the couple left for a short wedding trip to Oscoda.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY NEWS

The regular business meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary unit 346 was held November 13. Vice President Mary Willard took over the gavel. President Peggy Hupert is still up north. Wonder if she got that buck yet?

The annual mid-winter conference to be held in Lansing December 1, 2 and 3 will have Unit 346 represented by president Hupert, child welfare chairman, Norma Hoffman and Florence Alt.

Mrs. Markel from Southfield has joined Unit 346. A big welcome to you from all the unit, Mrs. Markel. Miss Beatrice Alt, daughter of Mrs. Florence Alt, can be heard as student announcer Tuesday, November 21 at 1:45 p.m. over radio station WCAR, Pontiac.

On December 8, the 17th District will have its meeting at the Chief Pontiac Home in Pontiac. If transportation is all that is keeping you from attending, call Ada Goers or Trena Quinn. They will make provisions for you.

Here is an item of interest concerning a young veteran. Mr. James Morrison has just taken over the office of chief of police in Coopersville, Michigan. Mr. Morrison is only 22 years old and a Navy veteran, the youngest police chief in Michigan.

Thursday, November 23, will be Thanksgiving. There are many things that we as free American citizens have to be thankful for. Let us not forget that when we sit down to our turkey dinners.
