Winter activities scheduled by YW

Short term workshops, mini-classes and a physical education program are slated for the winter months at the Oakland YWCA, 839 S. Crooks Rd., Clawson.

Registration is now in progress at the Oakland YWCA and classes are scheduled to start Jan. 10.

A sewing for snow wear workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Ella Hafferkamp on Mondays and Wednesdays for two weeks beginning Jan. 14, from 12:30 to 3 p.m. Construction of a variety of warm outer garments will be displayed and demonstrated for all family members.

Also beginning Monday, Jan. 14, at 1 p.m. will be a six-week class in chair caning, with Mrs. Bertha Trost teaching ways to re-do reed and rush seats.

How to make alterations for restyling clothes or relining a coat will be offered in three sessions by Mrs. Eleanor Lickfeldt beginning Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 15.

Papier tole is offered for five weeks also beginning Jan. 15, at 9:15 a.m. with Mrs. Trost teaching.

Construction of custom drapes for any window will be taught in a four-time class by Mrs. Katherine Reitz. It will begin Friday, Jan. 25, at 9:15 a.m.

Mrs. Yvanne Ham will demonstrate how to make perfect pullovers of a variety of materials for any member of the family in two workshop sessions beginning Jan. 28, at 1 p.m.

An evening workshop to make ecology boxes will be held by Mrs. Bertha Trost starting Thursday, Jan. 10. Materials aren't included in fees and must be supplied by students.

Baby sitting service for preschoolers of women in classes is available for daytime classes.

Golf lessons, a tennis players workshop, physical fitness classes, yoga exercises, swimming, aquacise (exercising in the water), ballet for women, a sports club, exercises based on ballet techniques and cross country skiing are some of the activities the YWCA is offering during the winter months.

Classes are offered both daytime and evening with preschool child care provided (at an additional fee) for most daytime classes.

Annual membership in the YW is required at $7.50 per year for adult women and $3 per year for girls and teens still in school.

Class fees range from $6 for a 10-week class in balletic exercise to $18 for 10 weeks of golf lessons.

YWCA adds new classes

Classes in jewelry and antiques will be added to the programs offered this winter by the Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River, Redford Township.

Jewelry making, under the direction of Barbara Maier, will be held Thursdays from 10 a.m. to noon beginning Jan. 24. Copper enameling will be the first stop and students will be encouraged to be as creative as they wish in learning to make elegant costume jewelry at low cost.

Antiques and collectibles, under the direction of Ray Bahm, will be held Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon beginning Jan. 23. Class members will be encouraged to bring their articles in and learn about them first hand.

SONDRA BERLIN has been named March of Dimes volunteer chairman for youth activities. Stricken with polio at the age of nine, she has long been familiar with March of Dimes activities and in the current campaign is working with youth groups that promote such programs as walkathons, bikeathons, teen tag days and school dances to raise funds to combat birth defects. Ms. Berlin, who also will take an active part in the 1974 Mothers' March Jan. 24 to 31, is the sister of Mrs. Florine Mark of Farmington, serving again this year as co-chairman of the Mothers' March.

Individual teaching is topic for AAUW

Using educational sciences to individualize instruction is the topic for the next meeting of the Farmington branch of the American Association of University Women, scheduled Wednesday, Jan. 16, in the Farmington Community Center.

The speaker will be Dr. Virginia Svagr, director of the diagnostic center and learning systems at Oakland Community College.

Dr. Svage, also professor of psychology at OCC, has had wide experience in teaching and studying reading and learning problems.

She has a BS degree in biology and chemistry from the University of Michigan, an MA in education from Wayne State University and a doctorate in clinical and education psychology from WSU.

She also is a registered nurse and a certified consulting psychologist for the state of Michigan.

Dr. Svagr's clinical experience has been in the Bloomfield, Dearborn and Oakland intermediate school districts. In addition, she has taught reading and learning clinical workshops at the University of Detroit, Eastern Michigan University and Marygrove College.

At Wayne State she has taught a course in learning theory and perception and a normal growth and development course.

Mrs. Robert Simanek and Mrs. Marjorie Brown are chairmen of the hospitality committee for the evening. Hostesses include Mrs. William Klehm, Mrs. Robert Sherwin, Mrs. Harold Whiting, Mrs. Wilbur Steinke and Mrs. Eleanor Spicer.

The AAUW branch is open to women with a degree from an accredited college or university.

NOW will show film

A film on sexism in literature, "This Book Is Rated 'S'," will be shown for the Jan. 15 meeting of the National Organization of Women, Schoolcraft-Livonia chapter.

The meeting is scheduled at 8 p.m. in the Waterman Center cafeteria on the campus of Schoolcraft College, Haggerty between Six and Seven Mile roads.

A discussion on sexism in books will follow the movie. All women interested in the NOW organization are invited. More information on the group is available from Donna Henkel, 11682 Spicer Drive, Plymouth.

3 Flags DAR plans meeting

Three Flags Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will host Mrs. Leland Smith, director of Keep Michigan Beautiful, at its January meeting.

Mrs. Hoyt Stewart, of 28666 Eldorado, Lathrup Village, will be hostess at the 12 noon luncheon on Monday, Jan. 14. She will be assisted by Mrs. John Knight and Mrs. Charles Shaw, both of Farmington.

The group is currently collecting used eye glasses and cases which will be donated to "Eyes For the Needy."
