2 area musicales accent Interlochen

Two "Meet Interlochen-Musicales" are planned for Sunday by the Friends of Interlochen. Opening their home for the event are Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Birmingham, for a 3 p.m. performance at 7110 Paterese Dr.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Post of Troy will also open their home for a 7:30 p.m. performance at 2999 Pine Hill Drive. The musical program will feature two Interlochenites, Priscilla Post, violinist, and Meta Orear, flutist.

Priscilla Post is the daughter of the Richard Posts and attended the National Music Camp for five summers and is a 1972 Interlochen Arts Academy graduate. In the summer of 1974 she studied violin with Paul Makonowitzky at the Meadowmount School for Strings in the Adirondack Mountains.

In May she played for the International Opera Festival in the Canary Islands under Theo Alcantara. At present she is a member of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra and is a senior at the University of Michigan School of Music where her teacher is Angel Reyes.

Meta Orear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Orear of Troy, attended the National Music Camp for one summer and graduated from the Interlochen Arts Academy with honors in 1973. She has studied flute with Clement Barone, a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

During the past summer she played with a wood-wind quintet in the "Workshop in the Woods" program of the Duns Scotus College in Southfield. The quintet also appeared at one of the popular "Brunch with Bach" programs at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Miss Post will play Partita No. 2 in D minor for solo violin by J.S. Bach and Sonata in A minor by Schumann. Miss Orear has chosen to perform Sonata in G minor by J.S. Bach, Le Merle Noir by Messiaen and Syrinx by Debussy. The young artists will close with a duet, Sonata No. 1 in G Major by Telemann.

Pub offers opera arias

Famous operatic arias and duets will fill the air at Bobbies' Pub on Sunday as the Bobbies' Bash- concert series features Jan Albright, lyric coloratura; Ed Kingins, tenor, and Elsie Inselman, mezzo soprano. Bernie Katz accompanies them on piano.

All three singers are members of the Michigan Opera Theater. Ms. Albright has appeared in operas ranging from "Carmen" to "Aida" and has been a soloist with the Detroit Symphony and many choral groups in the area. Her performances abroad include concert and oratorio in Germany, Iceland, Labrador and Newfoundland. She is currently teaching voice at the Oakland University Music Department.

Ed Kingins' career has encompassed opera, chamber music and musical comedy. His lead performances include Lt. Pinkerton in "Madame Butterfly" and the Duke of Mantua in "Rigoletto."

Kingins has made numerous solo appearances with the Detroit Symphony, the Buffalo Philharmonic and others.

Ms. Inselman is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music. Last season she debuted at Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts. She has also performed with the Detroit Symphony and other symphony orchestras in Michigan and Ohio. She is presently teaching voice at Wayne State University.

There is a cover charge for the Sunday performance from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Dinner and cocktails are available. Reservations may be made by calling Bobbie's in Bingham Farms.

Contest open for march

Composers with an urge to write marches may submit entries in a contest to select an official march for Detroit's Bicentennial celebration.

A first prize of $50 and official recognition will be granted by the Detroit Bicentennial Commission. All entries must be submitted by Dec. 3.

G. W. Binder, director of the Northwest Community Band, which is co-sponsored by Mercy College of Detroit and the Detroit Department of Recreation, will provide entry forms and further information. Binder is at 14811 Penrod, Detroit 48223, 838-1436.

Varani set for concert

The Oakland University Orchestra will present its first concert of the season Friday at 8 p.m. in Varner Recital Hall on the OU campus. The public may attend at no charge.

Piano soloist Flavio Varani will play the Mozart Concert in C Major, K.467. This concerto was used as background music in the movie "Elvira Madigan."

Varani is a member of the music faculty at Oakland University. He holds the artists diploma from the "Ecole de Piano Magda Tagliaferro" in Paris and the bachelors and masters degrees from the Manhattan School of Music.

The 45-member orchestra will also play a work by a native Michigan composer. "Etude for Orchestra" is by Fred Teuber, who grew up in Flint. Teuber is currently a member of the music faculty at the University of South Carolina, Columbia, S.C.

Other works on the evening concert include two little known excepts from nineteenth century operas: the Introduction to Act II from Humperdinck's Koenigskinder" and the Polonaise from Rimski-Korsakov's "Christmas Eve." The orchestra will also play a suite from Bizet's "Carmen."

The orchestra is conducted by David Daniels of the Oakland University Music Department.
