IMAGINATIVE - She didn't win first prize in the Farmington Kiwanis Club bird house contest but Mary Madion's creation caught the photographer's eye. A fifth grader at Flanders School, Mary made her bird house out of a coconut, a whisk broom and a piece of board. Birds will like Mary's creativity. (Event photo)

Farmington Country Club's President's Ball for its newly elected president, Jack Dunn of Heathstone, also honoring the new members, was held last Friday evening. It was a gay celebration with good music, delicious dinner and the delectable hors d'oeuvres during the cocktail hour.

The new members, Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens of Springfield and Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor were present when the gavel was presented to Jack Dunn by Rex Glasson of Lyn-castle Lane.

Some of the "scene" people during the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paffi, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Teschke, Mr. and Mrs. B. Brogren, Mr. and Mrs. George Welch, Al Vance, Mr. and Mrs. John Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Clapp, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sauer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Landsburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fago, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Maksym, Mr. and Mrs. William Kargela, Mr. and Mrs. Harlowe Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Main.

A GRAND BALL, coming soon is the second annual Community Center benefit dinner. The black tie optional affair will be held Thursday, May 21, in Glenn Oaks Country Club.

All of the "in people," of Farmington and surrounding area attended the last one. You may be one of those "in people" at this one. Advance tickets only, following the same procedure of the past.

Chairman for the gala event is Claire Orians with co-chairmen Bena Grossop and Grace Richardson. For additional information or reservations call the Community Center at 474-6873.

Plans for the Fourth of July for Kendallwood I and Colony Park Subdivisions have been revolving since before the last event was barely over. Keith Deacon, the project chairman, has been meeting with his co-chairmen to have all signals on Go for the Fourth—the theme, the parade, the events of the day, etc.

At the moment, the decorating chairman, Margaret Koltz of Bayberry (476-5423) informs us of a children's project that is underway this week and next, where the flag kit, at a price of $5, will be sold in the Colony Park, Kendallwood I areas, encouraging each house-owner to display our colors on Memorial Day and the Fourth of July.

It does add to the festivities of the Fourth in the area and is a nice show of patriotism for the dignitaries that visit, such as the speakers during the afternoon program. It might also be an incentive for other areas to follow wherein each home in a subdivision or on a street display the flag on these national holidays.
