MRS. DAVID W. BAUER (Nancy Ann Schiller)

Bauer-Schiller Rites Are Held

Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Detroit was the scene of the May 2 wedding of Nancy Ann Schiller and David William Bauer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Schiller of Delaware Avenue, Redford Township, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Norman Bauer of Pomona Drive, Redford Township, and the late Mr. Bauer.

The Rev. William H. Born officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

THE BRIDE wore a gown of silk organza with tapered sleeves and a Victorian neckline covered in lace and seed pearls. The A-line skirt of chantilly lace flowed into a chapel-length train trimmed in matching lace. Her crown was of lace and pearls, and her chapel veil was of silk illusion.

She carried a cascade of pink cymbidium orchids. Her attendants wore identical gowns of pink chiffon, with gathered skirts trimmed in Venice lace, and bishop sleeves. Mrs. Dorothy Lawrence was the matron of honor, while Mrs. Rosweta Duette-meyer, Mrs. Charleen Lamphear and Christine Molvey wore identical gowns.

Laurie Marek was flower girl and Mark Bauer was the ring bearer.

PAUL DUETEMEYER was the best man. The ushers were Don Priebe, Craig Jorgeson and Richard Nimtz.

The bride's mother wore a pink silk shantung coat and dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige coat and dress of linen and lace with aqua accessories.

A wedding reception in Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club in Farmington followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds are graduates of the University of Michigan. They plan a belated honeymoon in the Bahamas.

Vows Exchanged In St. Michael

Geraldine K. Roberts and Thomas L. Moore exchanged nuptial vows in a double-ring ceremony the morning of Saturday, April 25, at St. Michael Catholic Church, Livonia. The Rev. Andrew Forish officiated at the nuptial high mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Roberts of Golfview Drive, Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Athens, Mich., are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride, given by her father in marriage, wore a gown of white organza with bishop sleeves. The bodice of tucked organza was trimmed with Venice lace which also bordered the hemline and chapel train. Her face-framing headpiece of lace and organza held the imported silk illusion veil.

Her flowers were white roses and carnations with stephanotis and babies' breath.

THE SIX BRIDAL attendants wore identical gowns of white voile with mandarin neckline and jabot edged in Val lace. This lace also edged the cuffs on the bishop sleeves. They carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Gladeen Roberts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Paula Roberts, another sister of the bride, Gretchen and Susan Moore, sisters of the bridegroom and Mary Lindsay. Jenny Knight was junior bridesmaid.

Lonn Spencer assisted the bridegroom as best man. The ushers were Daniel Roberts, brother of the bride, James Gambino, David Lindsay, and Jeffrey Horton. David Roberts, brother of the bride, was junior usher.

For the occasion, Mrs. Roberts selected a floor-length gown in apple green. Mrs. Moore's floor-length gown was turquoise.

THE RECEPTION for 150 guests was held at the Dearborn Inn immediately following the ceremony.

The couple will honeymoon in Florida and make their home in Battle Creek, where both are employed. The new Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Bentley High School and Michigan State University, and her husband graduated from Athens High School and Western Michigan University.

MRS. THOMAS MOORE (Geraldine K. Roberts)

Lynn Rost Marries G.L. Todd In Ohio

Lynn Ann Rost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Rost of Dogwood Drive, Plymouth, became the bride of Gregory L. Todd, at a ceremony March 21, in St. Peter and Paul Church, Reading, Ohio.

The bridegroom is the son of William L. Todd of Holden, Mass., and the late Mrs. Todd.

Mrs. Linda Bird of Port Chester, N.Y., was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jacqueline Todd of Worcester, Mass., Barbara Benken and Harriet Gerack, both of Cincinnati, and Lisa Rose, of Plymouth, as junior bridesmaid.

Allan Powell was the best man. Ushers were Larry Maxwell, Richard Brenan, and David Quinlan. All are from Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Todd are graduates of the University of Cincinnati, where the bridegroom was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity.

After a wedding trip to San Juan, Puerto Rico, the couple is living in Cincinnati.
