

RECREATION NEWS

Each week, the recreation division of the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services presents a synopsis of upcoming activities in this column. For further information regarding programs, call the recreation office at 473-9570. For city council agenda items, call the Newsline at 476-3332.

■ PRESCHOOL ACTIVITIES
A variety of activities for preschoolers ages 1½ to 6 are being offered at the new Day Camp Building in Heritage Park. The activities range from dance, art, and music to tumbling, cooking and day camps. All activities will begin the week of Jan. 18. Refer to the recently distributed program brochure or contact our office at 473-9570 for information.

■ WEEKEND SPECIAL
A new program in cooperation with the Mercy Center lets you enjoy an evening of both indoor and outdoor activities. You will begin with a meal, cross-country ski, hot chocolate, swimming and a movie with popcorn. If sufficient snow is not available, indoor sport games will be held. The program will be Friday, Jan. 15, for children ages 8-10 and Saturday, Jan. 16, for ages 11-13 6-11 p.m. at the Mercy Center. Register at the Recreation office or Mercy Center. Fee is $10 per person.

■ AFTER-SCHOOL RECREATION
A variety of programs for children ages 6-13 will be offered at various school sites, Galway Room and the Heritage Park Day Camp beginning the week of Jan. 18. Classes will range from dance, art and gymnastics to a youth chorus, karate, doll making and sewing. Registration is now being accepted at the Recreation office.

■ CHILL GOLF OPEN
If you love golf, you'll love this event. A nine-hole golf tournament will be Saturday, Jan. 30, at the San Marino Golf Course. A shotgun starting format will be used beginning at 10 a.m. After completing your round of play, you can eat a hot dog and bowl of chili to warm you up. Fee is $15 per person with a registration deadline of Jan. 25. Awards based on registration.
