wasn't signing a letter Wednesday and is headed to the University of Toledo. Herman said Toledo coaches promised him some scholarship aid but how much was not yet determined.

Another CC player, lineman Aaron Babicz, didn't draw much interest from Division I schools despite being named Dream Team by one state-wide newspaper. Babicz, a 6-2, 245-pound lineman, signed with Hillsdale.

"No one wanted to take a chance on someone my height, but I have no doubts I could have played Division I," Babicz said.

"I've had other people sign Division I who didn't have (Bruce Catton's) talent. He's such a hard-working person, I was appalled he was not getting a bigger rush from Division I schools."

OCC men stomp S'craft, stay alive in league race

Well, there was no one coming to Schoolcraft College's defense.

Certainly none of the Ocelots did Saturday at Oakland CC. The Raiders went ahead by a bunch early and just kept pouring it on, burying SC 116-76 in men's basketball.

"We played absolutely no defense," said SC coach Dave Bogatz, whose team aligned 5-16 overall, 1-9 in the Eastern Conference. "They just outstrapped us, anywhere and everywhere. When you're out there, you've got to play defense."

"It just wasn't pretty." Unless, of course, you're an OCC fan. The Raiders stayed alive in the Eastern Conference race with the win, improving their conference record to 6-3 (12-9 overall).

Balance-keyed OCC's onslaught, which resulted in a 60-39 halftime lead. Seven Raiders reached double-figures in scoring, led by Willie Payne's 20 points (and 13 rebounds).

Ray Moreland and Bill Knight had 15 points apiece, Craig Martin and Bill Thurston notted 14 each, Troy Coleman scored 11 and Mark Galbraith had 10. Knight added 10 rebounds, and Randy Hicks finished with nine points and nine boards. Point guard Kevin Woodmore did a commendable job quarterbacking the OCC attack, dishing out 10 assists. He also had five steals.

For SC, Mohammed Abd-Elbakh scored 21 points, LaMonte Fondren totaled 19, Steve Whitlow had 18 and Vince Turner got 10. No one had more than five rebounds for the Ocelots, who were outboarded 49-31.

Another key factor for OCC was its lack of turnovers, according to coach Lynn Reed. "We only had 19," he said. "That's our best for the year. And we had excellent teamwork, with 28 assists. I thought we passed the ball well, and we rebounded well."

The win was the Raiders' 10th in the past 12 games. SC slipped to 5-16 overall, 1-9 in the conference.

SC WOMEN
The Lady Ocelots overcame a size disadvantage and posted a four-point losing streak Saturday, beating visiting Oakland CC 67-59. The win improved SC's record to 2-8 in the Eastern Conference, 10-11 overall. OCC is 3-7 in the conference.

the consecutive losses. But it took a team effort for the Lady Ocelots to pull out the win.

"This was a team victory," said Lady Ocelot coach Jack Green. "When you have seven players, everybody has to contribute or you're in deep trouble, and that's not true of ourselves, and rightly so."

For nearly half the game, SC did not even have seven players. Alisa Wechter, the Lady Ocelots' 5-10 freshman center, got two quick fouls early in the second half and fouled out with 18 minutes left. That forced Green to switch his leading scorer, Dana Hudson, to center.

His forwards were 6-6 Angie Cerne and 5-4 Michelle Ernst. OCC, which trailed 37-30 at the half, fought back to within one with nine minutes left. But that's as close as it got.

SC quickly resumed control, stretching its lead back to six. Still, the Lady Ocelots were never able to pull away. A Jody Dorr three-pointer with 45 seconds left trimmed SC's lead to five, but the Lady Ocelots answered by making three free throws to pull away.

Aristeo leads Spartans

Arno Aristeo of the Livonia-Novi Spartan Aquatic Club won high-point honors in the Girls 13-14 age division, but more importantly qualified for the Junior Nationals with a time of 2:07.46 in the 200-yard butterfly at the Circle City swim meet held last weekend in Indianapolis.

Aristeo also won the 200 freestyle; finished second in the 400 individual medley, 500 freestyle and 100 butterfly; third, 100 and 200 backstroke; fifth, 200 IM; and sixth, 1,650 freestyle.

He will be joined at the next month's Junior Nationals in Gainesville, Fla., by teammates Lisa Butzlaff and Jill Mellis.

Butzlaff (Girls 15-17) finished second in the 100 and 200 breaststroke; fourth, 400 IM; fifth, 200 IM and 200 butterfly; and eighth, 200 freestyle.

Boys 15-17: Jason Fisher — fourth, 100 backstroke and 200 butterfly; eighth, 200 freestyle; Randy Cobb — second, 100 breaststroke; third, 200 breaststroke; Tom Sawyer (B) — fifth, 100 butterfly; seventh, 200 breaststroke; Aaron Berlin (B) — first, 100 freestyle and 400 IM; third, 200 IM; fourth, 200 backstroke.

Girls 15-17: Julie Gallagher (B) — second, 200 backstroke; fifth, 100 IM; seventh, 100 freestyle; Shari Hill (B) — seventh, 100 breaststroke; Susan Pritchard (B) — first, 100 freestyle and 400 IM; second, 200 butterfly.

RELAY EVENTS
Girls 10 and under: Kris Uhler, Stephanie Gabe, Megan Mucci and Emily Hical — second, 100 freestyle.

Girls 13-14: Arno Aristeo, Megan Mucci, Amy Kohl and Jamie Vandertass — seventh, 400 breaststroke; Aristeo, Corazza, Kohl and Michelle Pantalone — seventh, 400 medley.

Shamrocks tie No. 1 Trojans

Top-ranked Trenton and No. 3 Redford Catholic Central battled to a 3-3 draw Saturday in a Michigan Metro High School Hockey League game at the Redford Ice Arena.

Matt Green's goal from Keith Knelding with only 16 seconds remaining enabled to the visiting Trojans to come away with the point.

"We made a mistake and threw it (the puck) out in front of our net and they (Trenton) banged away at it in the middle," CC coach Jack Gumbleton said. "They (Trenton) kept poking away at us. We kept losing it as
