

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

■ ASSAULT

Farmington Hills Police arrested a 48-year-old woman living on Congress after she threatened her husband and then fired two shots from a .22 caliber revolver. The woman's husband, who is divorcing her, had returned to their house to get some clothing when the two began to talk and then argue. She cocked the gun and pointed it at her husband's head, but then missed him when the weapon discharged. During a struggle, another shot went off. She has been charged with felonious assault.

Farmington Hills Police arrested a 19-year-old Farmington Hills man accused of applying a bear rug to a man and throwing him to the ground, and then threatening him with a shotgun Jan. 30 at a residence on Middlebelt Road.

■ VANDALISM

Five windows in three construction trailers were broken between Jan. 1-28 at the Garrison Co. on Indochin in Farmington Hills, causing $400 in damage.

The rear window of a blue 1991 Mercury Capri parked at the Diamond Forest Apartments on Halsted in Farmington Hills was slashed between Jan. 28-29, causing $500 in damage.

A 2-inch piece of pipe was thrown through a window at Aggressive Systems on Indoplex in Farmington Hills between Jan. 30 and Feb. 1, causing $200 in damage.

■ THEFTS

A man had $368 in cash taken from his wallet, left in a coat pocket at Kay and Kay Tile on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills on Jan. 29.

Items worth $4,550 were stolen from an apartment at the Muirwood Apartments on Ravine Circle in Farmington Hills on Jan. 29. Among the items stolen were a VCR worth $400 and a diamond ring valued at $3,600.

At another of the Muirwood Apartments, this one on South Lake View in Farmington Hills, a gold ring worth $200 and an emerald necklace and bracelet valued at $900 were among items valued at $2,766 stolen on Jan. 28.

A futon bed valued at $400 was stolen from the Village Green Apartments on North Floral View in Farmington Hills between Jan. 27-30.

Spoke hubcaps worth $360 were stolen from a blue and gray 1991 Ford Aerostar parked at the Ponderosa on 10 Mile in Farmington Hills on Jan. 24. Items and cash were stolen from a residence on Eastfield in Farmington Hills on Jan. 31. The front door had been left open. A man's leather jacket valued at $650, a woman's green jacket valued at $500, a man's wallet valued at $100, credit cards, and $500 in cash were stolen.

Chrome spoked wheel covers worth $800 were stolen from a 1989 red Cadillac parked at the Old Orchard Theatre on Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills Feb. 1.

Two men are expected to be charged with larceny of auto parts after Farmington Public Safety officers found them with two car radios Feb. 2, valued at $800, taken from vehicles at Dusseau Lincoln. Door locks on three cars were damaged, two of them had radios missing. An off-duty officer served the two men in the parking lot and made out for help.

AUTO THEFT

A 1992 blue Ford Festiva, valued at $7,200, was borrowed but returned from a residence on Ithwestern Highway in Farmington Hills on Jan. 29.

Recovered property: Farmington Hills Police detectives Chuck Hubbard, left, and Pat Sidge look over property recovered after they arrested two Detroit men suspected in five burglaries in Farmington Hills, one in Livonia and one in Southfield. Hubbard said two Detroit men, 34 and 17, had been arrested in the burglaries. Property was recovered from the residence on the older man's girl friend in Detroit. Sidge said anywhere from 25 to 40 residents who were victimized in the thefts have been called in to identify and claim their stolen property.

■ BURGLARY
Items worth $1,800, including a pearl necklace, were reported stolen Jan. 25 after a burglary on Earl Court in Farmington. The thieves entered through a patio window and made off with the items.
