

Social Eyes from page 1C

Debutante Laurie Anne Hrydziuszko enchanted the elegantly dressed audience with a song from "The Phantom of the Opera."

Mark Alfes, Michael Kleida, Stanley Kroliczyk, Thomas Mally, Stephen Maurer and Robert Tuse were debutantes' escorts for the evening.

Polish Day at the Detroit Institute of Arts is 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 1.

Enchanted Evening at Sea

Three Sea-Doo Jet Skis, a golden lab puppy, a sun-and-fun vacation in Puerto Vallarta, an "extra" opportunity to appear on the popular "Murphy Brown" show, a full-length black mink, a murder mystery party, and a pinball machine were just a few of the creative auction items up for bids at the 14th annual Mercy High School Auction.

The two-day event (Friday and Saturday night) brought in more than 650 venturers.

Mary Margaret and Lou Bosco and Nancy and Ed Moeller co-chaired the event. Their unyielding efforts, along with those of acquisitions chairwomen and chairmen Cheryl and Grey Spinazzo, Anne and Rick Calice, Mary and Jim Balers and Linda and Jim May, made the "Enchanted Evening at Sea" smooth sailing.

Other guests in the same boat were Marlana and Jim Grant, Michael and Carolyn DeMattia, Marilyn and Homer Harrison, Sid Harris of the George Burns Theatre, Pat Kilner, Sister Regina, Carmen Harlan and Johanna Monaghan, development director who is looking forward to the March 14 Lionel Hampton benefit for Mercy High School.

Love affair

Tom Gray, Randy Payne and Paul Vrzal co-chaired the center court fund-raising, black-tie affair, auction and tennis tournament for Cystic Fibrosis on Saturday-Sunday at the Franklin Racquet Club.

Honorary chairmen were Joe Glover, Tom Schoenith and Paul Borman.

Feast with the pharaohs

If you happened to receive the outstanding invitation to the Cranbrook Schools Brookside annual Kaleidoscope Auction "A Feast with the Pharaohs," you probably will want to frame it.

The Egyptian theme invites were made in Egypt with real Egyptian papyrus fibers and were donated by the Nazeeh Elias family.

And if the invitation is the first impression of what's in store at this benefit Saturday, it will be one you must not miss. For further auction information, contact Suzan Mitchell at 855-2043.

Puttin' on the Ritz

A celebration of spring fashions from Jacobson's, a champagne and champagne reception, luncheon and silent auction will bedazzle noon to 4 p.m. at the Dearborn Inn, for the National Kidney Foundation.

Event chairwomen are Judi Beaudoin, Charlene Hillmer and Audrey Kublez, with honorary committee persons including Henry Baskin, Joe Glover, Jerry Hodak and Dick Puritan.

Ticket prices are $45, or preferred seating is $75. Call 1-800-482-1455 for reservations.

Mercy mimes: Mimes Kara Spicer (left) and Michelle Shallah (right) entertain Johanna Monaghan (top, left), Sid Harris and Pat Kilner.

We are the world: At the sold-out benefit for the International Institute, Irma Elder (left), president Daniel Stella, Helen Patrauskas and Rosemary Bannon gather at the Ritz-Carlton, Dearborn.

Murder mystery caper

The Michigan Opera Theatre Guild will hold its annual Murder Mystery dinner party Saturday, March 20, at Forest Lake Country Club. MOT Guild president Ginny Clement and Linda Schaefer and Joan Wells are co-chairing the exciting whodunit. For reservations, call Joan Wells at 370-9128.

Goombay Festival

Escape the cold and adventure to the 1993 Goombay Festival on Friday at Forest Lake Country Club. The benefit for the Children's Center includes an evening of cocktails, dinner, live auction and dancing, with tropical attire encouraged. For reservations, call 831-5535.

Social Eyes correction

The Opera Ball will be held Saturday, April 24, at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Debutantes presentation: A night to remember for the six 1993 debutantes celebrating 10th anniversary of Bal Polonais are Ivonne Sworski (top, left), Jennifer Cregar and Andrea Maziarz; Laurie Anne Hrydziuszko (bottom, left), Karin Mee-Lyn Maurer and Mary Margaret Wetzel.

Mardi Gras: Michigan Cancer Foundation Circle of Fellows host committee members Dale (left) and Dr. Don Austin greet guests for a magical evening at the home of Susan and Jerry Ciuolo.

The Crystal Rose Ball for Hospice will be held Saturday, April 24, at Neiman Marcus. Watch next Social Eyes for important details.

Small, small world

The international venue will highlight the ninth annual "Cuisine Extraordinaire" at the Dearborn Inn's Grand Ballroom. The Children's Hospital fund-raiser will be held 6-10 p.m. Sunday, March 14.

The evening will include a gourmet adventure, live and silent auction and dancing to the Mark Phillips Band.

General chairwomen are Marybeth Winkworth. Tickets are $100, patron $150, benefactor $200. For reservations, call 745-5373.

Queen of the ball: Zophia Kafarshi, founder of Bal Polonaise, celebrates another successful fund-raiser for Polish culture, with husband Mitchell and court-dressed pages at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Circle of Fellows: The Mardi Gras celebration for Michigan Cancer Foundation had Sydell (left) and Doug Schubot amazed at the magician's tricks and Bill and Chris Laimbeer amazed at the moveable feast throughout the Ciuolo home.

Home & Associates, 111 S. Main, Ann Arbor, MI 48104

Professional/Manager

Energetic professional sought by elegant 3-piece office system. This is an excellent economic opportunity for a bright individual who understands good value. We offer you excellent in design, adequate space, quality craftsmanship, and extensive opportunities. You offer us a new 1250 sq. ft. For a personal visit, stop in at 111 S. Main, Royal Oak.

Financial Administrator - Established financial services firm seeks experienced...

Our Doxy 3 piece Desk Ensemble Available in Black or White
 40" x 30" Executive Desk, 2 Drawers, File Cabinet, 10" x 18" Typing Return - Regular $299.98

Now That's a Bright Idea.

Bright Ideas/techline studios

250 S. Main, Royal Oak, MI 48106
 Hours: Mon. - Wed. 9am-5pm
 Thurs. - Fri. 10am-12pm

111 S. Main, Ann Arbor, MI 48106
 Hours: Mon. - Wed. 9am-5pm
 Thurs. - Fri. 10am-12pm

CANTERBURY LANE

Canterbury Lane is a nationally recognized Special Care Unit for people suffering from Alzheimer's Disease and other forms of dementia. Everything about Canterbury is very special. From the secure, warm and friendly atmosphere to the specifically trained highly skilled staff, which includes nurses around the clock Canterbury offers dignified living for each and every resident. A variety of appropriate activities are planned and led by Canterbury's own Recreational Therapist. Based on a medical as well as a social model, most residents can be cared for through all phases of their disease. This is extremely important as it eliminates the emotional and physical wear and tear on families of having to move their family member if he or she no longer meets the social model criteria. There is plenty of safe room to wander and residents need not be continent nor be able to dress or feed themselves. If this is the type of care you need for a loved one call now for more information and a personal tour.

CANTERBURY LANE AT PEACHWOOD INN

CANTERBURY LANE at PEACHWOOD INN

3500 W. South Boulevard
 Rochester Hills, Michigan

Medicare Certified 313 852-7800 Tours, by appointment, Monday-Friday