Wedding Anniversary

About fifty relatives met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herby Carey New Year's day to celebrate their fifteenth wedding anniversary. A bountiful dinner was served—turkeys, ducks and chickens were cheap that day by the looks of the table. All had a good time and wished Mr. and Mrs. Carey many more anniversaries.

ANNUAL MEETING

Of the Methodist Sunday-School Board:

Last Tuesday evening at the M. E. parsonage occurred the annual meeting of the Sunday-school board and the officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Supt.—Mrs. M. Truscott
Asst. Supt.—Prof. Goodrich
Missionary Supt.—Miss Lou Grace.

Cradle Roll Supt.—Mrs. Gulien Secretary—Harley Warner
Asst. Sec.—Earle Wolfe
Treasurer—Edgar S. Pierce
Librarian—Earle Gulien
Asst. Librarian—Nettie Dickerson.

Organist—Ernestine Pierce
Reports were read from the officers at the head of the different departments of the Sunday-school work. The home department under the personal supervision of Mrs. Truscott is doing very excellent and important work. A report from the cradle roll department was also given, revealing the fact the M. E. Sunday school is keeping track of the newly born babies for the church. Other reports given were from the secretary and treasurer.

The year's work in the Sunday-school entire has been one of uniform success and the prospect for the new year is exceedingly bright. Outside of the public and high school work, there is no work being done in Farmington for the benefit of the next generation of citizens that surpasses in importance the quiet unobtrusive work of the M. E. Sabbath school under the splendid superintendency of Mrs. Margaret Truscott.

Death of George Jackson

George Jackson passed away at his home in this village last Monday morning. Although he had been in poor health the past three years, his death was unexpected at this time, he having been around the house as usual on Sunday.

Mr. Jackson was born in England 35 years ago and came to Farmington with his parents when three years of age. He was a blacksmith and worked at his trade in shops at Farmington and nearby towns. He is survived by a mother, two brothers and one sister.

The funeral was held from the home Wednesday at two o'clock. Rev. G. E. Gulien conducting the services. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Basket Ball Notes.

Farmington High School is to play Wyandotte High in Farmington town hall tomorrow, Saturday, evening, Jan. 7. The high school team is trying to put itself into good trim for the match. The holidays have interfered somewhat with practice, but the boys are practicing hard this week to make up for it. Come and help the boys win Saturday night.

Our excellent and still unbeaten Farmington I basket ball team is spoiling (?) for another match. The Detroit sporting papers have been publishing the scores which Farmington I has been running up against all opponents and consequently few teams, even in Detroit, feel desirous of facing such a tremendous proposition as Farmington I has proven to be. But our enterprising business manager, Albert Brider, is scouting the country round about and is working up quite a comfortable schedule of games for Farmington I. He has been hoping to secure a team to play Farmington I in Farmington tonight (Friday).

Faithful Servant

Retiring County Treasurer John Power of Farmington, in the four years of his service as keeper of the county's finances, has only missed one day and that was because he was snowbound in his home village and was unable to reach this city. Mr. Power says he has enjoyed the best of health during his term. He will retire on January 7, 1911, and devote his time to looking after his farm at Farmington. His duties as a county official, he says, have prevented him from doing many things at home; he would have liked to have done and he now expects to have the time to look after them—Pontiac Press-Gazette.
