

Mercy High auction set 'On Broadway'

Mercy High School in Farmington Hills will celebrate its 15th annual auction, "On Broadway," Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25-26, at the school, 11 Mile and Middlebelt roads.

Diana Lewis, co-anchor on Channel 7, will serve as honorary chairwoman. Mercy parents Mary and Jim Beiers and Mary Pat and Dan Armistead are co-chairmen for the annual event.

The theme of the auction, "On Broadway," will feature music and gifts that represent plays and musicals. Many other surprises are being offered to support this benefit.

Proceeds from the auction help offset the difference between tuition and the actual cost of providing a quality education.

Some gifts include: a trip to Toronto, including "Show Boat"; a trip to London, England, to see shows there; two cars, a Neon and a Jeep Cherokee; fur coats and jackets; an entertainment center provided by the Masco Corp.; theater tickets and a New York trip; and a signed Notre Dame football.

For reservation information, call Johanna Monaghan at 476-8922 or 476-8020. Cost is $15 per person for the Feb. 25 activities, including a silent auction, hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and beer, wine and soft drinks.

On Feb. 26, cost is $50 per person. This includes supper, silent and live auctions, entertainment by the award-winning show choir — the Mercyairens, sit-down dinner and full open bar. Tables of eight or 10 are available.

Detroit Concert Choir to perform

The Detroit Concert Choir will perform at 6 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 13, at St. Gerald Church, 21300 Farmington Road, Farmington.
