"It looks like our kids ran pretty well. Today we were hoping to run our best, up to our potential."

North's Becky Naglik and Amanda Hough broke up the Farmington pack, finishing fourth and fifth.

"Becky and Amanda had great races," Pinnell said. "That's the best I've seen them run at the same time."

They ran their best times along with teammates Amy St. Charles, Dana Ruskin, Beth Hough and Erika Anderson.

Monica Czerwinski ran her best time at OCC and was just 10 seconds off her overall best, Katie Atto 30 seconds.

North '95 boys champ

"The North boys were runners-up to defending champ Harrison, twice and Farmington once in the last three years."

The Raiders were led by senior Brian Rajdl, who was first with 17:43. Tim and Adam Kristall was close behind at 17:55.

North's Jon Berman was third, and Steve Chen and Chris Smith clinched the win, taking sixth and seventh.

The Raiders had 21 points, Farmington 43 and Harrison 63.

"That's not a great time for Rajdl, but he wasn't pushing too hard," North coach Paul Welch said, adding Rajdl was pointing toward an invitational Saturday.

"It's right about where we want him to be. He does a good job of improving throughout the year, and if history holds he should do the same. He's has made a big improvement on his times over last year."

Welch added Kristall ran a terrific race and Smith did an outstanding job.

"We've got a long way to go to the conference meet and to beat some of the teams in our division," Welch said. "But we're well on our way, and if the guys keep improving we should do alright."

"Smith is the pivotal guy. He has to bring it down a good 60 seconds to us to be in contention in the league and everywhere else. But he has the potential to do so."

Farmington had two in the top five (Ben Scott and Matt Bouckelaere) and four in the top nine.

"I thought we could've had four in the top six," coach Chip Bridg said. "Ben and Matt ran nice races, but the rest are capable of running better and they know it."

"We knew North was the team to beat and they were favored, but I thought we could have given them a little closer race. But we'll get better."

Harrison's top runner was Ryan Moloney in 11th place, but the Hawks are young and rebuilding.

"We have 17 guys on our team, and 13 are ninth- and 10th-grade who never ran cross country," coach John Reed said. "Sixteen guys had PRs and dropped 30 seconds each. It may not look like it, but we're doing well."
