WATER WORKS TO BE VOTED ON

SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED FOR AUGUST 28.

Proposition is to Bond for the Sum of $15,000. Registration August 26.

The Village Council has taken the necessary legal steps to bring about a special election for the purpose of allowing the voters to decide the question of a water system, as will be seen by the call for an election, as published elsewhere in this paper. The amount to be voted upon is fixed at $15,000. As the bonds will be sold as the money is needed for the work it will not be necessary to raise or expend any more of this sum than is actually needed for the purpose.

We understand that the Council hopes and really expects to get a good and adequate water system for something less than the amount voted, but thought best to make the amount $15,000 to be on the safe side.

The election occurs on Monday, the 28th of this month and the registration day is the previous Saturday.

The question of the kind of a system that will be best for Farmington is something for the officials to determine after the voters express their desire for water. There are several plans to be investigated and the council appear to be inclined to go slow in the matter and make no mistake in the kind of a system that they finally install.

The matter now being fairly before the people it is hoped that every voter will carefully weigh the question and go to the polls and vote his convictions. Every voter in the village should exercise his right to help settle the water problem.

Riley Goes to the Sunny Southland

Dexter Riley expects to leave Farmington in a very short time to make his future home in Georgia. His son and daughter and other relatives live at Valdosta, in that state and are so well pleased with their short residence there that they have persuaded their parents to follow them to the south land.

Bills are out announcing an auction sale of his personal property, to take place next Wednesday.

Among his list of live stock offered for sale are some thorough bred Mule Foot Swine and a fine shoat of this breed is to be sacrificed for the free dinner to be served at noon. Some of this breed dressed over 200 pounds last year at six months old.

Former Farmington Girl Marries

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Monday evening Aug. 7, at All Saints' Church, in Toronto, the Rev. Chas. K. Masters officiating, when Frances Irene, youngest daughter of John B. Lapham, of Buffalo, N. Y. and Fredrick G. oldest son of the Hon. C. A. Foster of Boston, Mass., were married. Mr. Foster and his bride will later go to the west for a four-months trip.

John B. Lapham and family formerly resided in Farmington, and the bride was here on a recent visit.

A Pleasant Lawn Party Monday

The social held at Dr. Miller's by the Farmington Guild last Monday evening, was a splendid success. Not only was it a success financially, but what was even better, those present, a crowd of healthy young people, with a goodly sprinkling of the older people, passed a very pleasant evening together on Dr. Miller's lawn, which was beautifully illuminated for the occasion.

The thanks of the Guild are due Dr. and Mrs. Miller for the use of their pleasant grounds, and also to them and to the committee who assisted them in preparing an evening of such splendid entertainment.

Canning-Factory Ready to Operate

Manager, C. H. Ely has the building for the canning factory nearly completed and the machinery is being placed. He informs the Enterprise that he hopes to be able to start up in a few days. Those who have tomatoes to spare should see Mr. Ely about them as the factory will probably start on tomatoes.

The committee of supervisors named to attend the meeting of the state board of equalization which convenes at Lansing the week of Aug. 21, did not finish the work of compiling the valuation of the county at their meeting in Pontiac last week. James L. Hogle of Farmington, a member of the committee, will finish the compilation as soon as he can hear from the supervisors who have not yet sent in reports. Fredrick Wieland and F. W. Walls are the other members of the committee.

MRS. P. D. WARNER PASSES AWAY

THE END CAME PEACEFULLY LAST FRIDAY

Was a Respected and Highly Esteemed Resident for Nearly 80 Years

There passed away early last Friday morning at her late residence in Farmington, one of our most widely known and most eminently respected citizens, Mrs. P. Dean Warner, her husband having died just a year before, (lacking some 19 days of being exactly a year since.)

Mrs. Warner had been an invalid for fifteen years, but the end came very peacefully and without apparent pain.

She was the daughter of Lemuel and Lucy Botsford. She was born in the state of New York April 1, 1824, and died in Farmington Aug. 11, 1911, she being aged 87 years, 4 months and 10 days. She was married Nov. 8, 1845, to P. Dean Warner and they lived together in Farmington for over 55 years, a long wedded life of mutual helpfulness, and of great usefulness.

They both came to Farmington when they were children, so that they both had been residents of this community for nearly 80 years. They lived to see many changes and much improvement in the community, no small part of which was due to their own untiring efforts.

The funeral, which was held from the late residence, last Sunday afternoon, was largely attended by relatives, friends and acquaintances from the immediate community, from Detroit, and other parts of the state. Interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery, in Farmington, Rev. Geo. Gullen of the local M. E. Church officiating.

Mrs. Warner was one of a family of 10 children, only one of whom now survives, Mrs. O. P. Hazard, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Dean Warner reared two children, Mrs. Mary Mills who passed away some years before, and Hon. E. M. Warner, Ex-Governor of Michigan. Gov. Warner's solicitous care of his parents in their extreme infirmity of their old age has been an illustration of finest moral worth.

They Were a Real Funny Bunch

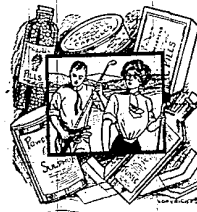

A jolly crowd of young people passed thru our town last Saturday when the Funny Bunch Club, of Northville, started for a two weeks encampment at their cottage at Sylvan Lake.

This club as the name indicates, is a jolly bunch, and consists of seven members, all graduates of the Northville High School class of 1911: Irene Dixon, Hazle Boye, Ruth Christensen, Adeline Simmons, Hazel Perkins, Noring Hogle and Frances Sitlington, with their two chaperones, the Misses Ella Power and Elizabeth Christensen.

The Funny Bunchers anticipate a fine time, and if we can judge by the amount of fun we heard, we can safely say their anticipation will be realized.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gullen, of Grand View, Brantford, Ontario, and Miss Grace Kijlgour, and Miss Lily Dungey, also of the same Ontario city, spent the week-end at the Methodist Parsonage in Farmington.

Remember the 15-cent supper served by the Ladies' Aid, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Grace, Friday evening, Aug. 18. Everybody welcome.
