Is Your Job Taking Over Your Life?

Sometimes, because of either necessity or choice, a person's job can take over their life. We all probably know someone who is a hardworking success-oriented individual whose dedication and life revolves around their work. Such individuals are sometimes motivated by financial gain, personal status, or fear of failure, and in some cases, this could be jeopardizing their personal lives. Although God wants everyone to be successful in their work and to have a fulfilling life, we should put everything in our lives into proper perspective. Our job is important, and if we can accept it as a ministry by serving others and doing our best, we should be successful in the workplace. In addition, if we can balance our vocation with family, recreation, hobbies and a good spiritual life, we will be successful in God's eyes.

Ask the Lord to bless your plans, and you will be successful in carrying them out.
