

A week's worth of Hummer up for bids at Falcon fund-raiser

Farmington High School's Falcon Society will be auctioning off use of an American Motors General Hummer for a week-end at its fund-raising dinner dance, which begins at 6 p.m. on November 16 at Ylindimi's restaurant in Farmington Hills. Parents have gathered a number of other items for the silent auction, including VIP Pistons and Red Wings tickets, personal driving lessons for three at the Hum-mer Academy off-road test track, golf outings, restaurant and hotel packages, jewelry, gift baskets, holiday items and baskets put together by student clubs and school sports teams. Someone will even get to be Freddie Falcon, the school mascot, for a day. All proceeds will go to support the outdoor facility improvements currently under way at the school. For ticket information, contact Linda Hellebuyck at 478-6648.

Bidders? Pictured in front of the Hummer that will be part of the auction are Gail Atkins, Dee Oliver, Mary Stahl, Freddie Falcon, Linda Hellebuyck, Teri Mizzi, Mary Miller, Karen Matthys and Debbie Washer.

Forum focuses on local preparedness

Botsford Health Care Continuum will host a town forum: Bioterrorism Readiness and Response in your Community, at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the Farmington High School Auditorium. A panel of health care professionals, police and fire department leaders will answer questions on what is being done to assure readiness to respond to bioterrorism and what citizens need to know about bioterrorism. The panel of community experts will include David Walters, D.O. Chairman, Disaster Planning Committee, Botsford General Hospital; Gerald Blackburn, D.O. Co-Chair Bioterror-ism Subcommittee of the Michigan Infectious Disease Society, Botsford General Hospital; Richard Marinucci, chief, Farmington Hills Fire Department and William Dwyer, chief, Farmington Hills Police Department. For more information call 442-7986.
