Dan Farzoo and Steve Dales scored two goals apiece for Marquette, which had more shots on goal, 34-25. Ryan Daust, Kris Danielsen and Sandy VanWormer chipped in one each.
R.J. Ulrich was in goal for the Flyers, who are 13-6-1 overall.
"We had a slow start and really lost the game in the first period," Harris said. "We had a good second period, but we didn't finish in the third. We kinda sat around and let Marquette dictate the flow of the game.
"We took some penalties. Against a physical team like Marquette, it's important to stay out of the penalty box.
"We have to expect contact, but we're not that type of team. We don't have the size and depth to play that kind of game. We're a two-year-oriented team. We were letting Marquette bring the play to us.
Orchard Lake St. Mary's, which lost to Marquette on Friday, 6-0, defeated Negaunee in the consolation final Saturday, 5-3. In the opener Friday, Farmington's Brett Laird scored four goals and was named the star of the game.
Negaunee's Cory Cronkrich scored the first of his two goals (3:58) to give the Miners an early lead, but the Flyers were ahead at the end of the first period, 2-1.
Matt Lee tied the score at 9:42, and Laird scored an unassisted, short-handed goal at 14:38.
Farmington scored the first four goals of the second period for a 6-1 score. Laird had two (4:21 and 10:39), Hay (1:24) and Heraghty (14:37) one each.
Cronkrich notched his second before the period ended, but the Miners started the third with Josh LaBelle in goal instead of Kurt Beckendorf.
Laird scored his fourth (1:46) before Bryan Hill (6:43) and Dan Woodruff (12:08) finished the scoring for Negaunee.
Farmington's Marc Rauth and Nick Maki had three assists apiece; Leo had two and Sean Ellis, Ulrich and Heraghty one each. Ulrich was in goal the whole game. The Flyers outshot the Miners, 39-31.
"The game was a little more physical than we're used to," Harris said, "but the kids came ready to play."
