METHODIST NEWS
A Christmas musical service will be given in the Walled Lake M. E. Church by its choir and assisting soloists, Friday evening, December 23 at 8 o'clock. The program, directed by Charles Hutton, will consist of a group of traditional carols sung by a mixed quartet, including: "Beside Thy Cradle Here I Stand," "Bethlehem's Slumber Song," "Rejoice," and "Shepherd's Christmas Song," arranged by Dickinson.

Prelude, offertory and postlude piano selections will be heard, as well as an offering of social numbers. The latter portion of the program will be a part of the Christmas portion of Handel's "The Messiah." This will include the tenor recitative and air, "Comfort Ye My People," and "Every Valley," bass recitative and air "Thus Saith the Lord" and "But Who May Abide the Day of His Coming?" chorus "And the Glory of the Lord;" contralto recitative "Behold a Virgin Shall Conceive," contralto air and chorus "O Thou Thra Tellest Good Tidings;" Pastoral Symphony; soprano recitatives: "There Were Shepherds," "And Lo the Angel of the Lord," "And the Angel Said unto Them," "And Suddenly There Was with the Angel," contralto air, "He Shall Feed His Flock," soprano air "Come unto Him," and the chorus, "Glory to God."

Rev. E. L. Carless will pronounce an invocation and read a passage of Scripture. The assisting soloists are Mrs. Arthur E. Payette, soprano, and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, contralto, both of Detroit, and Perc Carr of Pontiac, soloist at Christ Church Cranbrook and musical director of First M. E. Church of Pontiac. Charles Hutton will act as bass soloist in addition to directing the program. Mrs. Paul C. McKibben is the pianist and accompanist.

At six o'clock Saturday evening the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will serve a turkey supper in the church basement. The menu includes roast turkey with dressing, mashed potatoes, cranberries, buttered peas, cabbage salad, celery, pickles, jello, cake, rolls and coffee. The true

Blue class of the Sunday School will wait tables. In conjunction with the supper the Cheerio girls' class under the supervision of Mrs. Harold Hipp will hold a bazaar which will include candy and pop-corn booth, an apron and fancy work booth, a "novelty" booth and a baked goods booth. Every article to be sold in this bazaar is produced by hand, and will include many things acceptable as Christmas gifts.
